VFW Post Officers Elected—

State Commander Schum and other officials of the Veterans of Foreign Wars were present in Vernonia Friday evening to witness the nomination and election of officers for the new year before the largest number of V. F. W. comrades ever to gather at a local meeting.

Commander John Grady opened the event introducing the five visiting state officers who in turn assisted in the degree work for Connie Anderson and E. Walrath, the two newest members of Smith-Christensen post.

Installation of the new post officers will be held Friday evening, April 19th with a district officer officiating as installation officer.

Nominated and elected were Omar Sheeley, Commander; Leonard Johnson, Senior Vice Commander; Mike Ludwig, Junior Vice Commander; John Grady, Quartermaster; A. L. Kullander, Post Advocate;

Frank Taylor, Chaplain; and Ted Hammond, Surgeon.

McEntires Entertain Saturday Night—

At a pinocle party last Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McEntire entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ira Baucum, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Skuzie, Mr. and Mrs. E. Frazee and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rasmussen. High score for the evening was held by Mrs. Frazee; low score was held by Mr. McEntire.

Quilting Club Meets at Mrs. Monger's—

Mrs. James Monger was hostess to the Quilting Club Tuesday. A pot-luck dinner, quilting, and a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Lewis Laramore were the afternoon's activities. Attending besides the hostess and Mrs. Laramore, were: Mrs. Grayce Bundy, Mrs. Henri Adams, Mrs. Mable Mitchell, Mrs. Rose Poetter and a new member, Mrs. Ruby Brewer.

WMS Hears of Mission Problems—

The W. M. S. of the Evangelical church met Wednesday, April 3, in the church auditorium. The meeting was opened with devotions led by Mrs. Bessie Malmsten.

The business meeting followed with reports of circles and committees being heard. The Father and Son banquet was reported to be the most successful ever held. It was decided to hold the annual birthday luncheon on Wednesday, April 24th.

Following the business session, a program was presented which included a review of the first chapters of the new study book "Right Here at Home", by Mrs. Ray Mills. This dealt with mission problems among the foreigners in our large cities and special mention was made of the Italian missions of our own church.

The young peoples' missionary circle presented a playlet, "Church Women and Church Relations;" Mrs. A. V. Mowe gave a reading, "The Foreigner at Your Door"; and special music was furnished by a ladies quartet consisting of Mrs. L. H. Dewey, Mrs. J. W. Nichols, Mrs. S. V. Malmsten and Mrs. C. A. Malmsten.

At the close of the program the group adjourned to the social hall where they were greeted by Richard Lalli, talented young musician, charmingly dressed in Italian costume. He delighted the ladies by singing Italian songs for which he played his own accordian accompaniment.

Members of the Polyanna circle served Italian refreshments consisting of Italian chocolate pudding made for them by Mrs. Lalli, and Annis sticks made by a recipe belonging to Miss Fossatti.

At the close of the hour, a box of candy was presented to Richard Lalli in appreciation of his delightful entertainment.

Ethel Spencer Marries Local Man Saturday—

Ethel Louise Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spencer, and Jack Ralph Graney were married Saturday, April 6, at Kelso, Washington, by Reverend Basher of the Methodist Church. The bride's father and mother and the groom's mother were the witnesses at the ceremony. A wedding supper was held in Portland following the reading of the rites. Mr. and Mrs. Graney are at home on Third Avenue.

Missionary Society Host to Rally—

On Friday of last week the Evangelical W. M. S. acted as host society for a district rally held in the local church. About 150 delegates from churches in and about Portland were in attendance. The banner for the largest percentage of members in attendance was presented to Mountain Home.

Guests arrived about 9:30 a. m. and were ushered into the reception room where they were served tea and snacks. Mrs. Matthews presided at the tea table, with Mrs. Burnside and Mrs. Greenman assisting.

Luncheon was served at noon to 185 ladies.

An interesting program was given throughout the day with highlights being talks by Miss Verna Hertzler, missionary from China, and Mrs. Rodney Sunberg, branch president from Seattle.

News of the Theatre

CROOKS EXPOSED IN "FRAMED"

Revealing dramatic details of the battle which law agencies and the press are waging against blackmail rings which extort millions of dollars from hapless victims each year, Universal's timely production, "Framed" comes Saturday to the Joy Theatre.

Featured roles are enacted by Frank Albertson as a young reporter who fights to capture the criminals and clear himself after being "framed." Constance Moore is the girl who comes to his aid.

Robert Armstrong portrays the city editor who opposes the blackmail reign.

SOUTHERN BEAUTIES IN "SHOOTING HIGH"

Southern beauty helps to make it exceedingly easy to look at "Shooting High," a colorful action-romance of the West, co-starring Jane Withers and Gene Autry, which 20th Century-Fox is presenting at the Joy Theatre on Saturday.

All the leading feminine roles are taken by Southern girls. Jane Withers was born in Atlanta. Marjorie Weaver, who plays the part of Gene's dream girl in the picture, is considered one of Kentucky's greatest beauties, while Katharine Aldridge, who is also prominently featured is a Virginia belle and is known as America's No. 1 Magazine Cover Girl.

Alfred E. Green directed "Shooting High." John Stone was associate producer.

"DR. EHRLICH'S MAGIC BULLET" TO OPEN SUNDAY—

The Joy Theatre's new attraction, "The Story of Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet", which opens there Sunday, is one of the few motion pictures to come out of Hollywood in which boy doesn't meet girl.

Starring Edward G. Robinson, the film tells the true and dramatic story of man's struggle against a hundred million deadly public enemies. It is the romance of reality rather than of the boy-girl variety which makes "The Story of Dr. Ehrlich's Magic Bullet" spell-binding entertainment.

Shattering every precedent for dramatic frankness, Warner Bros., the producers, have told the true story of a great man's life, its romance, its adventures and its many trials. The producers of this motion picture have cast aside the plot conventions of the average film and blazed a completely new trail in a motion picture fraught with significant truth, truth which is more absorbing than any boy-meets-girl romance could possibly be.

PIETY VERSUS BRAVING IN "FULL CONFESSION"

The titanic struggle of piety against braving, between a two-fisted simple-minded brute and a determined, strong-willed priest, provides high-pitched drama in "Full Confession." Victor McLaglen, Sally Eilers, Joseph Calleia and Barry Fitzgerald play the leading roles.

The powerful story chronicles the efforts of Calleia, as a kindly priest, to persuade McLaglen, a paroled convict, to confess the murder of a watchman, in order to save an innocent man from the chair. But the slow-witted ruffian, who knows the priest cannot expose him because of the seal of the confessional, refuses. How Calleia eventually succeeds in his mission by arousing the inherent decency in the man brings the film's soul-stirring climax.

"RIDE HIM COWBOY" OPENS AT JOY TUES.—

"Ride Him Cowboy", latest thriller in the John Wayne Western series, will roar into the Joy Theatre Tuesday. Featuring the husky cowboy star and "Duke", his miracle horse, "Ride Him Cowboy" is packed to the brim with excitement.

Wayne is seen as a Texas cowboy, who sets out to catch "The Hawk", dreaded bandit leader. However, he becomes involved in a murder and is unjustly sentenced to die. His escape from the law and final capture of "The Hawk" fills time all the way.

Keep young eyes bright with better light for better sight!
Young eyes need good light for easy seeing. That's one reason it is so important to use the right size light bulb in your lamp and fixtures. Yet surveys show that 2 out of 3 bulbs used in homes today are the wrong size for safe seeing. It should not be hard to know when you have enough light—when you can see quickly, accurately and comfortably your light is right.
