

25 Teams Seek Championship

Portland, Ore., June 17 (Special)—A record entry list of 25 teams will battle for the Oregon semi-pro baseball championship in a double eliminations tournament opening in Portland's coast league park, July 2.

Two games will be played every night except Saturday and Sunday nights under the floodlights of Vaughn Street park.

The Oregon champion will play the Washington winner for the Northwest semi-pro championship and the right to enter the national semi-pro tournament at Wichita, Kan. Last year Silverton won the state and regional titles and then finished third in the national tournament.

Ray Brooks, northwest semi-pro baseball commissioner, announced the first round pairings as follows: July 2—Mantle Club vs. Molalla; B. & O. Transfer vs. Mt. Angel. July 3—Sauvies Island vs. Gaston-Dairy Creek; Jack & Jill vs. Tigard. July 4—10 a. m., Portland Babes vs. Blue Lake Park. 12 noon, Canby vs. Seapoose. 2 p. m., Stayton vs. Battleground. 4 p. m., Bridal Veil vs. St. Johns. 6 p. m., Valselt vs. Verboort. 8 p. m., Silverton vs. Reliable Shoe.

July 5—McElroy's vs. Tillamook; Albany vs. Sellwood.

Medford drew a first round bye and will play its first game July 9 against the winner of the McElroy's-Tillamook game.

Teams will battle for cash prizes as well as trophies and glory, with 15 percent of gross receipts going to the winner, 10 percent to the runner-up and five percent to the third place team.

Beauty Secret Found in New Lamp

The right light is just as important to your looks as the right lipstick. For light-conditioning a small bathroom use MAZDA Lumiline lamps on either side of the mirror. They light the face evenly, without glare or annoying shadows. In larger bathrooms, a ceiling fixture using at least a 100-watt bulb for general lighting is also recommended.
