"Flight Angels," a film of the skyways with a brand new twist will make its local debut at the Joy this Friday. The Warner Bros. picture tells the story of airline hostesses, a theme which has never before been shown on the screen. It's power-drive drama from start to finish.

Dennis Morgan, an ace pilot, is grounded when his eyesight starts to fail. He is persuaded to accept a job as teacher in the school for airline hostesses. The climax of the film is reached when Morgan makes a test flight in a new stratosphere plane despite his poor eyesight. It is undoubtedly one of the most exciting scenes ever filmed.

"Flight Angels" has an all-star cast which includes Virginia Bruce, Dennis Morgan, Wayne Morris, Ralph Bellamy and Jane Wyman.

"TYPHOON" STARS DOROTHY LAMOUR, ROBERT PRESTON—

There'll be romantic sighs aplenty when glamorous Dorothy Lamour falls rapturously, gloriously in love with the first white man to invade her tropic paradise—Robert Preston! See a huge tropical island go up in flames... see a real tropic typhoon unleashed with all its thundering force. See Typhoon in Technicolor.

"DEAD" WIFE OR BRIDE— WHO'S CARY GRANT'S "FAVORITE WIFE?"—

What happens when a presumably long-dead wife suddenly re-appears to confront her newly married husband gives rise to a melange of hilarious complications in the romantic comedy, "My Favorite Wife," co-starring Irene Dunne and Cary Grant, with Randolph Scott and Gail Patrick in support.

In "My Favorite Wife," Miss Dunne is cast as the wife supposedly lost at sea who returns home on the very night her husband is leaving on his honeymoon with his second wife. Cary Grant plays the bewildered husband, while Gail Patrick is seen as the bride. Further complications develop in the plot when the husband finds out that his first wife was isolated for seven years on a desert paradise with a handsome explorer, who, after they are rescued, wants to marry her.
