Graven of Burns and Mrs. Virgil Van Alstine of Hines, Oregon.

Hallowe'en Party Held Thursday—

Miss Patsy Parry was hostess at a Hallowe'en party held last Thursday evening. The little guests came in costume and the house was decorated with jack o' lanterns. Exciting games were played after which refreshments of cider, doughnuts, cookies and candy were served.

Those present for the evening were: Mary Ann Clark, Gordon and Harold Crowston, Violet Hyland, Dorothy Tipton, Dickie and Ed. Kaphammer, Lavona and Murulla Brownlee, Ralph Sawyer, Calvin Mitchel, Jackie Parry and the hostess, Patsy Parry.

Couple Honored At Party Wed.—

The staffs of the Washington and Lincoln schools joined Wednesday night, October 30, to hold a surprise party honoring Miss Thelma Ramsey and her fiancé, Ralph Bryan, of Longview. An electric percolator was presented the young couple.

Games were played throughout the evening. Hallowe'en cake, coffee and tea were served.

Stork Shower Held Tuesday Night—

Mrs. Robert Slawson was hostess for a stork shower held at the Slawson home Tuesday night, November 4, for Mrs. Noble Dutton. About 20 ladies were present; a number were unable to attend but sent gifts.

The evening was spent in playing games, the final one resulting in Mrs. Dutton discovering the basket of gifts at the end of a string which had been cleverly wound throughout the house.

Delicious refreshments of ice cream, dainty cakes, coffee and tea were served.

Eagle Lodge Initiates Seven—

Members of the Vernonia Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles entertained about 30 visitors from Astoria and Portland last Friday night for the initiation of seven into the local Aerie membership. Included among the visitors was Arthur Baines, District Director for the State Aerie.

A pot-luck supper and dance was held following the initiation.

Bryan-Ramsey Rites Read Sunday—

At ten o'clock Sunday morning, November 3, Thelma Ramsey, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Ramsey, and Ralph Bryan were married at the apartment of the bride's sister, Mrs. Leonard Franklin, in Longview. Reverend Ted Martin officiated at the ceremony at which only relatives were present.

The bride wore a dressmaker suit of dark green wool trimmed with leopard; the accessories were green. She wore a corsage of orchids. Miss Velva Ramsey, sister of the bride, attended; she was dressed in a travel suit of brown crepe. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Leonard Franklin, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan are at home at the Monticello Hotel in Longview where the couple own radio station KWLK.

News of the Theatre

RICH CONVICTS TRY SWINDLE IN PRISON—

"Millionaires in Prison," a comedy drama which interweaves the lives of a convict king and five rich men behind prison walls, stars Lee Tracy in what is claimed as one of his most colorful roles.

The millionaires are two stock swindlers, two wealthy clubmen entangled in a corporation mess and a doctor convicted of manslaughter. Tracy, a long-term, is the leader of the gray-clad horde.

COLORFUL, THRILLS IN "FRANK JAMES"—

"The Return of Frank James," new 20th Century-Fox Technicolor picture opening Saturday at the Joy Theatre, has been hailed by advance reviewers as even more exciting and colorful than the spectacular "Jesse James."

Henry Fonda is starred and Gene Tierney, Jackie Cooper and Henry Hull are featured in the film.

"ROCKNE" ROLE TRIPLES O'BRIEN'S FAN MAIL—

Proving that it isn't necessary for a movie star to play a romantic lover role to catch the fancy of the letter writing public, Pat O'Brien's fan mail has slightly more than tripled since he was cast for the Rockne role in "Knute Rockne—All American" the film at the Joy Theatre.

Surprisingly, perhaps, a substantial proportion of the Rockne inspired letters are from women and girls. As was to be expected, the greatest increase is in letters from youngsters and youths of high school and college age.

RAYMOND RETURNS TO SCREEN ROLES—

Fresh from a two-year vacation from pictures during which time he realized a lifelong ambition to write music, Gene Raymond currently makes an auspicious return to films in the gay comedy "Cross Country Romance," in which Wendy Barrie is co-starred.

Raymond's legion of fans will welcome his screen return in this sprightly RKO Radio film, for he again portrays a romantic light comedy role, the type which brought him his original fame.

Story concerns a handsome young doctor who gets involved with a beautiful, runaway heiress when she stows away in his trailer during a cross country trip.

NEW CHAN FILM—

The newest adventures of the incomparable Oriental sleuth come to the screen in "Charlie Chan in Panama," the latest of the 20th Century-Fox thrillers, featuring Sidney Toler in the title role, which opens Tuesday at the Joy Theatre. Featured with him in the cast are Jean Rogers, Lionel Atwill, Mary Nash, Sen Yung, Kane Richmond, Chris-Pin Martin, Lionel Royce, Helen Ericson and Jack La Rue. The film shows Chan on the trail of a devilish plot to sabotage the Panama Canal.

LOVE INTEREST BY ANNE AND PATRIC—

Anne Shirley and Patric Knowles, two of Hollywood's most popular young personalities, make their debut as a romantic team in the screen version of L. M. Montgomery's "Anne of Windy Poplars." A homespun, romantic drama, "Anne of Windy Poplars," an RKO Radio film, also features in important roles James Ellison, Henry Travers, Slim Summerville, Elizabeth Patterson, Louise Campuell, Joan Carroll, Katharine Alexander, Minnie Dupree, Alma Kruger and Marcia Mae Jones.

"HIDDEN GOLD" NEWEST HOPALONG "WESTERN"—

Hard riding and smoking guns will bang their way to the fore next Wednesday at the Joy Theatre, when "Hopalong" Cassidy comes back with his pals "Lucky" and "Speedy" in his latest action-packed Clarence E. Mulford Western, "Hidden Gold."

SONGS AND LAUGHS IN "YOUNG PEOPLE"—

Fun, laughter and a rollicking good time are in store for Joy Theatre patrons when "Young People," the 20th Century-Fox film which stars Shirley Temple, Jack Oakie and Charlotte Greenwood, opens on Friday. With five grand songs to aid in the merriment, "Young People" has been tabbed by previewers as Shirley's best picture to date.
