

LET'S BE SOCIABLE

First Meeting of New Year Held—

The Evangelical W. M. S. held its first meeting for the new year at the church on Wednesday of last week.

The meeting was presided over by the new president, Mrs. Minnie Malmsten. Other newly elected officers include Mrs. Bertha Kirkbride, vice-president; Mrs. Helen Roland, secretary; and Mrs. Bess Nichols, treasurer.

Devotions were led by Mrs. E. J. Douglass and the study report on "Phases of the Mission Work in China," was presented by Mrs. Judd Greenman.

During the social hour delightful refreshments were served by members of the Betty Brite circle.

The next meeting will be February 5, and will include a shower of useful articles for the church kitchen.

Mrs. MacDonald Is Hostess—

Mrs. W. F. MacDonald was hostess with Mrs. George Carlson assisting for the Betty Brite meeting held Tuesday afternoon of this week. Mrs. Harold McEntire assumed responsibilities as president of the missionary group at the meeting.

Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. A. H. Foshaug, Mrs. G. W. Coffman, sister of Mrs. Harold McEntire, and Mrs. Eugene Lowe. Mrs. Franklin Malmsten will be hostess at the next meeting and Mrs. McEntire will assist.

The Nehalem Club Meets at Ruhl's—

The Nehalem Club, social group of the Eastern Star, met Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. F. M. Ruhl; Mrs. Dan Cason assisted as hostess. The Ways and Means committee offered for its report an outline of the program to be followed the ensuing year.

During the social hour following the business meeting, Mrs. Glenn Hawkins was presented with a bathinette from club members.

Mrs. Marston Meets Bridge Club—

The O. A. bridge club met Friday of last week at the home of Mrs. Charles Marston in Riverview. Mrs. Hale Greenman, a guest, held high score. Mrs. A. J. Hughes was also a guest. Mrs. Walter Vaughn and Mrs. F. R. Olin were unable to attend.

Birthday Luncheon Held Thursday—

The annual birthday luncheon of the Vernonia Study Club was given Thursday, January 9, at the home of Mrs. Judd Greenman. The committee in charge of preparing and serving the food were: Mrs. Ross Duncan, Mrs. Ralph Valpiani and Mrs. A. J. Hughes; Mrs. Harry Sandon and Mrs. William Heath assisted.

Former Study Club members to be present for the meeting where birthday friends for the past year were disclosed were Mrs. E. M. Bollinger and Mrs. Hamp Robertson.

Mrs. Wallace McCrae, vice-president, presided over the business meeting during which a letter of thanks was read from J. W. Thompson, chairman of Columbia county Red Cross drive, who stated that the recent local drive netted the largest contribution ever received from Vernonia. Also during the meeting the group agreed to continue to sponsor the Tawanka Campfire group which is under the guardianship of Miss Grace Condit.

Roll call was observed at the end of the business meeting with each one telling the name of her birthday friend. Mrs. Alice Estey arranged for the drawing of new birthday friends' names by using the "gold-fish bowl" system. Members "fished" from a large bowl a capsule in which a name was enclosed.

Mrs. Phil Taylor will be the hostess for the next meeting to be held January 23; Mrs. William Heath will review "The Family" by Nina Fedorova.

Extension Group to Hear Lesson on Colds—

The Vernonia Extension Club will meet Friday, January 17th, at 10:30 in the Home Economics room in the high school. Mrs. Maude Purvine Caswell will have charge of the lesson, "Let's Have Fewer Colds." At noon a lunch will be served. Any one interested in Extension work is invited to attend. Please bring dishes and silverware for own use.

Wedding Ceremony Read Wednesday—

The fifty people present at the prayer meeting at the Christian church last Wednesday evening, were delightfully surprised when, at the close of the service, Walter Rude and Miss Maxine Brady stepped forward and were married by the pastor, Rev. W. O. Livingstone. The entire company immediately repaired to the parsonage where a delightful reception was held.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brady of this city and is quite prominent in church and social circles. She was dressed in a blue silk afternoon gown. The groom is employed by the Oregon American Lumber Corporation. The young couple will make their home in Vernonia.

Mt. Heart Club Meets Tuesday—

The Mountain Heart Social Club met Tuesday, January 7, at the home of Mrs. Oscar Kaphammer where newly elected officers were named as follows: president, Claudina Banta; vice-president, Edna Linn; secretary, Mina Slawson; and treasurer, Zoe Whitsell. Plans for a cooked food sale to be held January 25 at Sam and Bob's were completed.

News of the Theatre

COMPLETE FACTORY RENTED FOR SCENE—

The California pottery industry makes its bow to the screen in "I Love You Again," co-starring William Powell and Myrna Loy at the Joy Theatre.

An entire pottery factory was rented for one sequence in the production in which Powell is called upon to act as general manager.

"I Love You Again" is an amusing, fast-moving comedy dealing with the plight of a man who recovered from an eight-year attack of amnesia only to discover that he no longer knows himself.

MOVIE MONSTERS SHED DISGUISES—

Latest and most unusual horror picture of that famous pair, Boris Karloff and Bela Lugosi, is Universal's "Black Friday," which comes to the Joy Theatre Saturday.

In contrast to previous horror films, both Karloff and Lugosi appear as they do in real life. Karloff is a surgeon who performs a daring operation in which he transplants part of the brain of a criminal into the brain of a mild college professor, who then is led unconsciously into a life of ruthless crime.

BEERY SERENADES HIS "LADY LOVE"—

Every night at Jackson Hole, Wyoming, doleful strains emanated from Wallace Beery's cabin for a couple of hours. Beery, instructed by Joseph Calleia, who is an accomplished musician, mastered the playing of "A Bird in a Gilded Cage" on a harmonica. He had to play the lachrymose melody and serenade Marjorie Main with it for a comedy sequence in "Wyoming," coming Sunday to the Joy Theatre.

GO UNDERGROUND TO MAKE MOVIE—

Regulation steel helmets and coal miners' outfits were worn by Richard Arlen and Andy Devine for their co-starring role in Universal's "Black Diamonds," at the Joy Theatre Tuesday with Kathryn Adams, Mary Treen, Paul Fix and Pat Flaherty. Drama in the story deals with the battle of a young newspaper reporter, played by Arlen, to bring an end to death-trap conditions in a coal mine.

FAMOUS NEGRO TENOR MAKES HIS SCREEN DEBUT—

Charles Holland, famous Negro tenor who flashed across the musical horizon when he appeared over a national radio hook-up for a Red Cross Benefit Show during June, 1940, makes his screen debut in "Hullabaloo," at the Joy Theatre Wednesday. During the course of the production, Holland, in his role as a bellboy, sings two popular operatic arias.

LAUGH FEST—

A veritable avalanche of humor threatened to disrupt production on "Scatterbrain" at the Republic studios. Judy Canova and Billy Gilbert, scheduled to make a scene together, laughed so hard at each other's comedy that the infection spread to the cast and crew and all shooting had to be suspended until they recovered from their collective laughing jag!

The finished product which resulted from this sound stage laugh fest may be seen on the Joy Theatre screen Wednesday.

Marshall Gets Honor Roll Recognition

Larry Marshall of Vernonia, senior in forestry, made the honor roll for the fall term, Oregon State College Registrar E. B. Lemon has reported. The roll includes only those students who make grade point averages of 3.50 or better while carrying 12 or more credits. Only about six per cent of the 4759 students registered in the fall term made the honor roll.
