News of the Theatre

"STAGECOACH WAR" CALLED "HORSE LOVER'S DELIGHT"

A huge herd of horses makes a horse lover's delight of Clarence E. Mulford's "Stagecoach War," latest of the "Hopalong" Cassidy outdoor adventure stories, which opens Saturday at the Joy Theatre.

The horses are mainly mustangs, rounded up expressly for the production from the open range country of Idaho. There are also six blooded Morgans who do a chore at stagecoach tooling in one of the most exciting stagecoach races ever filmed.

NOTED HILLBILLY GETS GIRL AT LONG LAST

Robin Burns has never been touted as one of the screen's outstanding Casanovas. As a matter of fact, the glamour girls either gave him a gentle "brush off," or were content to play big sister to the sage of the Ozarks, and let it go at that.

But it's all different now—Bob put his foot down recently, but hard. So instead of having "some callow juvenile," as he puts it, get his girl, the final fadeout of Paramount's "Comin' Round the Mountain," Bob's newest starring picture, will find the leading lady reposing in his manly, if not too romantic arms. She's none other than Una Merkel, and Robin steals her away from — Jerry (Yahoodi) Colonna!

IRISH FOLK TUNES SUNG BY JUDY

Lovers of old Irish folk music will revel in the list of numbers sung by Judy Garland in her first solo starring film, "Little Nellie Kelly," to show at the Joy Theatre for an engagement of two days.

The Irish folk melodies include the lilting "Pretty Girl Milking Her Cow." "It's a Great Day for the Irish" is featured in the St. Patrick's Day Parade sequence, and the rhythmic "Singin' in the Rain" is an important portion of the modern sequence.

"LADDIE" FAITHFUL TO WORLD-FAMOUS STORY

"Laddie", one of Gene Stratton-Porter's most distinguished works, comes to the screen with all the appeal, all the vigorous drama, all the imaginative touches of the novel, all authentic to the last detail of costume and locale and character and story.

With Tim Holt in the title role, "Laddie" is the story of the romance between a farm boy and a beautiful girl, the daughter of a proud and aloof father who forbids the relationship. How Laddie's younger sister worms her way into the adamant parent's heart, allays his bitterness over his disgraced son and brings the young couple's parents together brings the absorbing film to a heart-warming, entertaining conclusion.

Breeziest and gayest of all the matchless "Blondie" hits, "Blondie Plays Cupid" opens Wednesday at the Joy Theatre.

Besides the safety feature of having tires with good treads during rainy weather, there is a definite economy in getting new tires in winter instead of in summer months. The reason is that new tires dissipate heat slowly due to their new heavy treads, and consequently run hotter and wear faster in summer than in winter. Tests demonstrate that new tires installed during winter months give about one-fourth more mileage than the same type of tires installed in summer.
