Rainbow Girls Hold Installation, Majority Degree Ceremonies

Installation of Rainbow Girls was held Monday night with Elsie Duncan, outgoing Worthy Advisor, the installing officer. Frances Childs Mullins was installing marshal. For the coming term the following girls will serve: Worthy Advisor, Pauline Rollins; Worthy Associate Advisor, Lillian Hedman; Charity, Bonnie Arner; Hope, Barbara Nichols; Faith, Florida Graves; Recorder, Myrtle Stacey; Treasurer, Alberta Tipton; Chaplain, Lottie Reich; Drill Leader, Betty Olsen; Love, Evelyn Heering; Religion, Martha Tapp; Nature, Gwendolyn Graves; Immortality, Joy Willard; Fidelity, Lillian Laird; Patriotism, Jonnibel Hatfield; Service, Nina MacDonald; Confidential Observer, Marianne Furnish; Outer Observer, Eleanor Siefert; Musician, Maxine Brown; Choir Director, Joyce Knight; Historian, Virginia Vaughn; Lady of the Lights, Nancy Brown. Advisory Board members also installed were: Ray Mills, W. F. MacDonald, Russell Conley, Wafar Kent, Elwood Furnish, Mrs. Paul Gordon, Mrs. George Drorbaugh and Mrs. Virgil Powell.

Past Mother Advisors Helen Dewey and Minnie Hughes were seated in the East and Worthy Matron Allie Dickson and Master of the Masonic Lodge C. L. Brock were also given recognition. The outgoing Worthy Advisor, Elsie Duncan, was presented in a very charming and sentimental degree a beat on which was placed a white Bible, and miniature ships, each representing a phase of a successful term of sailing in Rainbow. Elsie received sincere praises from the Mother Advisor, Mrs. W. F. MacDonald, and from representative members of the Masonic Order and the Eastern Star for her outstanding work the past term. Of particular note is the fact voiced that though having been in Portland where she has been attending business school and working, Elsie was always present for meetings and exemplified her work in a commendable manner.

Following the installation ceremonies Frances Childs Mullins was given a majority degree, an honor bestowed on Rainbow girls who marry or who reach the age of twenty one, signifying the close of active Rainbow membership. Mrs. Mullins was presented with gifts for her home at the close of the impressive rite.

Refreshments were served in the social hall to the Assembly members and visitors present for the open installation, following the ceremonies.

Annual Luncheon To Be Held Wed.

Breaking away from the precedent of having their annual Guest Day luncheon in the fall, the Evangelical Missionary society will entertain guests next Wednesday, February 5, at 12:45 p. m. in the social hall of the Evangelical church. The affair will be pot-luck and each member is asked to bring a guest; the Martha Circle will have charge of the tables.

Mrs. E. H. Condit is chairman of the luncheon; assisting her as committee members are: Mrs. Rudolph Moon, Mrs. E. J. Douglass, Mrs. Martin Pumala, Mrs. Dave Marshall, Mrs. Frank Riley, Mrs. Carroll Chance and Mrs. Oscar Steele.

According to Mrs. Condit, the time for the annual Missionary Guest Day has been changed to the first of the year because it is felt that that is the logical time to meet new comers to Vernonia. As a result of this change, the annual Father and Son banquet, also sponsored by the group will occur in the fall, the former season for the Guest Day luncheon.

Business Women to Have Speaker

The Vernonia Business Women met Tuesday night in the high school for a short business meeting. Final discussion of the plans for the next meet on February 11 at the apartment of Rose DeMacon were made. At this time the club will have as a guest Maud Purvine Caswell, Home Demonstration Agent for the county, who will speak on "Line in Dress," as a unit of study for "the charm school" project recently begun by the Business Women.

Aimee Turner Marries Saturday

Aimee Turner and Charles K. Melis were united in marriage Saturday, January 25, at eight o'clock at the Christian Church parsonage in Hillsboro; Reverend Putnam officiated. The couple, both well known in the Nehalem Valley, are living in the Messing apartments. Mr. Melis is a Clark and Wilson employee; Mrs. Melis will continue activities in Armitage Drug store.

Announcement of Marriage Made

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson announce the marriage of their daughter, Jane, to Mr. Malcolm S. Bryant on Sunday, January 26, at Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant will be at home after February 10 at 3087 Southeast Ankeny Street in Portland.

Mrs. Olin Gives Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. F. R. Olin was hostess at her home on the O-A hill Friday afternoon of last week for a bridge luncheon. Attending were: Mrs. R. D. Eby, Mrs. W. W. McCrae, Mrs. Hale Greenman, Mrs. Richard Fletcher, Mrs. Phil Taylor, Mrs. William Heath, and Mrs. A. J. Hughes. Each guest was presented a charming gift at the close of the afternoon.

Study Club Meets With Mrs. Taylor

Mrs. Phil Taylor was hostess for the regular meeting of the Vernonia Study Club Thursday, January 23. Following the dessert luncheon and the short business meeting to which members gave new words for the roll call, Mrs. William Heath reviewed the book, "The Family" by Nina Fedorova.

The book tells of the lives of a Russian family in the hotel business in China. The interesting people who stayed at the hostess provide ample entertainment for the reader of the book, the author of whom, a Russian exile, now lives in Eugene, Oregon.

Mrs. Richard Fletcher will be hostess for the next meeting of the group on February 13. At that time Mrs. Paul Gordon will offer a review of "Curtain Calls" by Noel Coward. Members will give names of famous playwrights for roll call.
