Joint Installation Held January 27—

Joint installation of the Vernonia Temple No. 615, Pythian Sisters, and Harding Lodge No. 116, Knights of Pythias, was held January 27. Isabel Culbertson with the assistance of Grayce Bundy and Eda Gronbeck was installing officer for the Pythian Sisters. Joan Mellinger presented each new officer, installing officer and the musician with a corsage during the ceremonies; little Joan was presented in return with a gift, following the installation.

These Pythian Sisters installed in offices were: Past Chief, Isabel Culbertson; M. E. C. Georgia Mellinger; E. S. Edna Heenan; E. J. Jean Crawford; Manager, Gladys Parry; M. of R. and C., Fern Kullander; M. of F., Clara Kerns; Protector, Murel Knight; Guard, Laureta Lamping.

William Van Doren and Harry Culbertson installed the following Knights of Pythias: C. C., O. G. Weed; Vice Chancellor, Ray Mills; Prelate, Norris Soden; Master of Work, Fred Johnson; K. of R. and S., R. M. Aldrich; Master of Exchequer, C. C. Van Doren; Master-at-Arms, Marvin Kamholz; Inner Guard, J. T. Scott; Outer Guard, H. M. Culbertson.

Queen of Hearts Meets Thursday—

The Queen of Hearts bridge club met at the home of Mrs. R. D. Eby Thursday, January 30. Mrs. Alice Estey was a guest. High score for the afternoon's playing was held by Mrs. William Heath while the hostess, Mrs. Eby, held second high.

Stork Shower Honors Kentucky Lady—

A stork shower was given at the home of Mrs. B. J. Cline Thursday, January 30, in honor of Mrs. Alvin Anglin of Grayson, Kentucky. She has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Burl Stephens, who has moved here recently from Kentucky. Mrs. Anglin plans to leave for Kentucky soon. She received many nice and beautiful gifts. Refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Alvin Anglin, the honored guest, Mrs. Gertrude Kirk,

Mrs. Isola Fowler, Mrs. Ione Justice, Mrs. Eva Jacobs, Mrs. Dorcas Bays, Mrs. Theresa Goertzen, Mrs. Ruby Tackett, Mrs. Walter Porterfield, Mrs. L. A. Rogers, Mrs. Minnie Johns, Mrs. Beryle Cline, Mrs. Burl Stephens, and the hostesses, Mrs. B. J. Cline and Mrs. Nannie B. Hall of Waldport.

Those who were not present but sent gifts were: Mrs. Ole Estes, Mrs. Merle Cline, Mrs. Russel Cline, Mrs. Della Hewes of Portland and Mrs. Ethel Hall.

Junior Auxiliary Organized Friday—

A Junior Auxiliary for daughters of Legionnaires was organized last Friday. Election of officers was held and resulted as follows: president, Martha Tapp; vice-president, Margaret Sturdevant; and secretary-treasurer, Ruth Boeck.

Social Club Meets Tuesday—

The Mt. Heart Social club met Tuesday, February 4, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Junkins on the O-A hill. A cooked-food sale was planned for February 15 at Sam and Bob's store. Plans were also made for a card party to be given at the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday, March 1.

After the business meeting, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to the following ladies present: Mary Kaphammer, Ruby Biggs, May Mellinger, Minnie Wood, Mary Pemble, Louise Emmons, Evelyn Heath, Maude Salomonsen, Eva Hearing, Edna Linn, Nan Crume, Mina Slawson, Hazel Bergerson, Zoe Whitsell.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the Odd Fellows hall, March 4 when all members are asked to come at 10 a. m. to enjoy a hard-time party with lots of fun and surprises in store. A pot-luck lunch will be served.

Group Attends District Meet—

The conference of District No. 1 of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Saturday, February 1, at Astoria. Local members attending the meet were Mrs. Alice Estey, Mrs. E. J. Preston, Mrs. J. U. Nichols and Mrs. J. C. Lincoln.

A navy plate was won by this unit for the 140% membership gain. Frances Crampton, president of the district, awarded the china plate greatly prized for its historical significance. The Vernonia Auxiliary feels justly proud in the award given their unit for the greatest membership increase in their class of 50 or less members.

Plans are already under way for the Poppy Sale to be conducted in May; this is an annual activity for the benefit of disabled soldiers who make the poppies so significant of the last Great War. 950 poppies have been ordered by the local Auxiliary.

Deborah Circle Meets Tuesday—

The Deborah Circle of the Evangelical Missionary society met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. R. Olin; Mrs. E. J. Preston assisted Mrs. Olin, the hostess. Mrs. Herman Dickson was a guest. The March meeting of the group will be held at Mrs. Richard Fletcher's home with Mrs. A. J. Hughes assisting.

Invited to the shower were: Millie McMullen, Christine McKenzie, Lorraine Anglesey, Lilly Anne New, Bernice Smith, Mrs. D. L. Willhite, Viola Eckland, Matilda Bergerson, Mrs. A. V. Mowe, mother of Mrs. Smith, Bessie Stolen, Alice Lindsley, Mrs. G. Wood, Mrs. G. W. Bell, Betty Lou Kirk and Patsy Tisdale.

News of the Theatre

DARING ACTION IS HIGHLIGHTED—

The roaring action of battles on the high seas, the thrilling, smashing action of two vessels fighting for supremacy is unfolded with terrific impact and amazing realism in Hal Roach's "Captain Caution," the sweeping sea epic based on Kenneth Roberts' best seller, which will have its local premiere at the Joy Theatre on Saturday.

The scope of sweeping action on the screen has always been limitless because of the versatility of the camera, and never has this been more forcefully proved than in the vividly realistic sequences which are unreel in "Captain Caution."

ERROL FLYNN LEADS ACTION—

"Santa Fe Trail," the new Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland co-starring picture, which has its premiere local showing on Sunday at the Joy Theatre, brings to life some of the most colorful figures of America's history. Dealing with the turbulent days of the era just preceding the Civil War, the story is said to top the thrills of "Dodge City," "Virginia City" and "The Sea Hawk."

Flynn portrays Jeb Stuart, famed cavalry commander, Ronald Reagan is cast as General George Custer, and Raymond Massey plays the fanatical John Brown—three names that ring out of history's pages.

"TURNABOUT" SPOTLIGHTS STREAMLINED STORY—

Carole Landis, who made her bow under the Hal Roach banner as a prehistoric debutante, is co-starring with handsome John Hubbard in Roach's new streamlined comedy, "Turnabout," filmed from the Thorne Smith novel and slated for its initial showing at the Joy Theatre on Tuesday.

"Turnabout" was directed by Hal Roach personally and its hilarious plot concerns the high jinks produced when Miss Landis as Mrs. Willows and Hubbard as her husband exchange sexes. The svelte, shapely Miss Landis steps into her husband's oversize shoes and experiments with the problems faced by the male portion of humanity. Six-foot, broad-shouldered Hubbard becomes a fashionable society matron and flutters about at cocktail parties while his wife wears the pants—literally.

SCREEN VERSION OF "GOLDEN GLOVES"

That three-ring circus of the sporting world, the hair-raising annual amateur "get-together," the Golden Gloves, is the background for the new Paramount picture which opens Tuesday at the Joy Theatre.

"Golden Gloves" tells the story of a young amateur heavyweight whose department store boss sponsors his career in the ring, and of the girl friend who tries to make him quit fighting until, incensed by the unfair tactics of petty racketeers, she urges to boy on to win.

"FOUR MOTHERS" DELIGHTFUL FAMILIAR FUN, FOR JOY—

"Four Mothers," the latest of the Four Daughter series will be shown locally at the Joy Theatre starting is Wednesday. It is a warm, human story of a family who know how to make sacrifices.

The film has the same delightful cast that were in the other Lemp family pictures. The four Lemp girls are portrayed by the Lane sisters, Priscilla, Rosemary, Lola, and Gale Page. Adam Lemp is played by Claude Rains and the role of his sister is played by that grand old lady of the screen, May Robson.
