NOW HE WRITES MURDER MUSIC—

Concocting music that serves as the clew to a murder, was the unusual task entrusted to Composer David Snell. A haunting strain furnishes the clew by which Jackie Cooper, Gene Reynolds, Bonita Granville and other youthful amateur detectives track down a killer in "Gallant Sons," new drama coming to the Joy Theatre. The script called for a few notes of music so haunting that the listener whistles it after the first hearing. The composer, who has written many successful songs, says that to write a successful "scrap" of music is more difficult than composing ten popular hits.

SAVAGES FILMED—

The Dark Continent, savage, sinister and mysterious, becomes the scene of a new adventure film, Universal's "South of Karange," coming to the Joy Theatre.

A small band of white men and one white woman speeding through the jungles aboard a train which rebellious savages are plotting to destroy, affords the dramatic framework for the action drama. Charles Bickford, James Craig, Luli Deste and John Sutton head the cast.

THRILLS JUST PART OF DAY'S WORK—

Practically every thrill within the experience of American naval aviators is crammed into a dramatic story of the air in "Flight Command," new drama of naval aviation and Uncle Sam's "Hell Cats," starring Robert Taylor with Ruth Hussey and Walter Pidgeon, which comes to the Joy Theatre.

Following months of authentic technical research, the new picture, filmed with the cooperation of the United States Navy, brings to the screen such aerial adventures as Taylor escaping by parachute from a doomed plane at sea, the crash of a plane in attempting to land with a fog device, Taylor tangling his plane in an aerial sleeve target and maneuvering it from its perilous plight, battle practice at sea, dive-bombing, and other thrills.

"DR. KILDARE'S CRISIS" ON JOY PROGRAM—

With Robert Young as guest star with Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore and Laraine Day, "Dr. Kildare's Crisis" brings a dramatic new addition to the popular medical-mystery series.

Young plays a new character as Miss Day's brother who develops a mental condition diagnosed as epilepsy, breaking up the romance between his sister and Dr. Jimmy Kildare. The girl, knowing the malady to be hereditary, refuses to marry Ayres. Lionel Barrymore, finds the medical clew that solves their problem and permits the romance to continue.

8 "BAD BOYS" IN ONE PICTURE—

Eight of the screen's toughest youngsters will be seen in prominent and featured roles of Universal's "You're Not So Tough".

The eight are Billy Halop, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell, Bernard Punsky, Bobby Jordan, Harris Berger, David Gorcey and Hally Chester, all of whom have appeared in the play, "Dead End."

In "You're Not So Tough," the boys will be seen as California crop-workers following the harvests up and down the state.

Others in the cast are Nan Grey, Henry Armetta and Rosina Galli.

NEXT TIME THEY'LL BE WISER!—

The next script which calls for Ian Hunter, Reginald Gardiner and Roland Young to get dunked in a lake is going to be subjected to a minute examination before this bit of action takes place.

This decision was reached by the three actors while on location for scenes in "Duley" starring Ann Sothern.

On location at Arrowhead Lake, the actors were given a call to report early for shooting. They arrived before the camera at six o'clock in the morning and were instructed by S. Sylvan Simon to jump in the lake, clothes and all.

They complied, but instead of direction from the shore all they received was laughter. The whole thing had been a gag. There was no film in the camera and nothing remotely resembling the situation, in the script.

INSPECT 200 HOUSES IN SEARCH OF "IDEAL HOME"—

More than 200 homes were inspected by John Shelton, Art Rutherford and Director S. Sylvan Simon in their day-long search for an authentic "model home" of the newfeds around whom centers the story of "Keeping Company." Every building subdivision in Southern California was covered by the director and his screen bride and groom. It was Simon's belief that the youngsters could best select the home which the newfeds of the picture would be most likely to want. His only restriction on their choice was that it be a five-room house of moderate price.

3 Scholarships Are Offered

High school graduates of Oregon will have opportunity to obtain three additional $100 scholarships to attend O. S. C. to study agriculture under a scholarship program just announced by the Standard Oil company of California.

This company has given the college $300 to be awarded in three scholarships for next year to two boys who have made excellent records in 4-H club work and one in Smith-Hughes agricultural projects. As other firms are offering similar scholarships to stimulate interest in scientific agriculture among young farmers, a uniform application blank will be available later for those interested, says William A. Schoenfeld, dean of agriculture.

The Standard Oil company has also made a grant of an equal amount to be awarded to three young men who cannot attend college but who will use a $100 grant for some approved project on their home farm. County agents and Smith-Hughes teachers will be advised later concerning details of these awards.

its budget requirements. All other state commissions must have their budgets approved by the ways and means committee at each legislative session, and some of the lawmakers can't see why the highway commission should be an exception to the rule.

Observations: The beauticians are here in behalf of beauty parlors; they don't like the beauty schools which do work for half price . . . And the wine boys are beginning to gather around the lobby; their bill comes up this week . . . Mr. Ralph Coke, the big shot Republican, is here again for about the fifth time; he doesn't want anything to happen to the money lending business—he is in it . . . The sergeant-at-arms has a tough time with ventilation; some want the windows open and others want them closed . . . Rep. Carson of Marion county is the champion amendment maker for bills up for final passage; 16 so far this session . . . Only one call of the house, so far, which makes all members answer roll call; a record, but wait until the hot bills come up—then all the lawmakers will be put on the spot by call of the house . . . The house hasn't worked one Saturday, but the Senate has worked the last two, and from now on it looks like work every Saturday for both houses; then a little later night sessions.

When washing the car be sure to use plenty of water in order to reduce the chance of scratching the finish with the accumulation of dirt and grit which may be adhering to the surface.
