"Green Entry" Reviewed Thursday

Mrs. Hale Greenman reviewed the book, "Green Entry", when the Vernonia Study Club met March 17 at the home of Mrs. Judd Greenman. The novel written by F. Ruth Edward has to do with a horse snow circuit in California and tells how fate steps in and solves the problem of establishing the desirable relationship between Joan's second husband, Michael, and her son, Alan.

Members responded to roll call by defining words new to them.

Mrs. Wallace McCrae will review "Leonardo Da Vinci" by Antonina Vallentin at the next meeting on March 27 which will be held at the home of Mrs. Marvin Kamholz. A minute biography of a famous painter and names of several of his most famous paintings will be given in answer to the roll.

Birth Party Held Sunday

A picnic dinner in honor of Bud Borton's birthday was held Sunday, March 16. Attending were: Mr. Borton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Borton of Nashville, Oregon; a brother, Royal Borton of Summit; Miss Eunice Hermansen of Albany; a sister, Mrs. Arnold Hermansen, and her husband and three children of Summit; and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Borton and four children.

Bridal Shower Held Saturday

About forty people attended the bridal shower held March 15 honoring Miss Evelyn Robbins, daughter of Mrs. Ollie Robbins. The Misses Margaret Haiman and Bessie Bell were hostesses for the shower which was climaxed by a mock wedding staged on the lawn. Bessie Bell took the part of the bride, Ollie Robbins, the groom, Margaret Haiman, the parson, and Betty Glenn, the ring-bearer.

Louise French Given Shower

For Miss Louise French whose marriage will be an event of next month a shower was held Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. Alfred Bays. The hostesses were Mrs. Wallace Bergerson, Mrs. Dane Brady and Mrs. Ervin Smith. About fifty guests were invited.

Defense, Topic of Legion Speakers

State Commander Kelley was the principal speaker at the annual Legion birthday party staged by the local Auxiliary members Tuesday night. Other speakers were Department President Laura Goode, and Department Secretary Mae Whitcomb. The main topic of the speeches was defense. The State Commander stressed the importance of the organization of a Home Guard unit; he stated that Oregon is the only coast state without such a defense body.

During the evening, registration blanks to be distributed to any woman who is interested in giving volunteer service to the Legion were given out, and Department Secretary Mae Whitcomb brought out that every woman may do her part. Not only members of the American Legion Auxiliary but anyone in the community may give her support to this emergency volunteer service.

Besides the state and district officers present, a number of guests from Clatskanie, Birkenfeld, Banks and Buxton attended the party.

For the musical program, Miss Aivenia Connell presented her high school sextette in vocal selections and piano duets by Eileen Enos and Barbara Nichols were offered. An especial feature of the annual birthday party is the elaborate cake which is baked, decorated and presented each year by Mrs. Ann Luther. This year was no exception with the beautiful, tiered confection decorated with miniature soldiers and bearing a patriotic slogan of icing. Commander George Baker cut the cake as a part of the birthday ceremony.

Officers Elected At Sewing Club

The Neighbors of Woodcraft Sewing club met March 12 at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Backes. Two officers were elected: Bernice Thomas, secretary and Maye Green, correspondent. Attending the meeting were: Ina Marshall, Hazel Shipman, Bernice Thomas, Elizabeth Mullins, Myrtle Raymond, Viola Carrick, Leticia Mossman, Erna Johnson, Agnes Mohler, Maye Green and the hostess, Mrs. Backes. The club will meet March 26 at the home of Erna Johnson.

Mrs. Cedarburg Given Shower

Mrs. Charles Cedarburg (Dorothy Austin) was honored with a bridal shower Monday night when Mrs. Chester Dusten and her daughter, Barbara, were hostesses for a party to which a large number of friends were invited. Mrs. Cedarburg's marriage occurred in February but was kept secret until last week.

Quilt Committee Meets Tuesday

The Quilt Committee met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lyman Hawken and the quilt was awarded to Mrs. Vina Hicks, employee at the Oregon-American sales office.

F. hall are the Ralph Valpianis, Harry Kings, Ray Mills, Wallace McCraes, Charles Melises, J. W. Nicholises and the Art Millers.

News of the Theatre

BASIL RATHBONE CONVICT IN 'RIO'

The immaculate Mr. Basil Rathbone isn't so immaculate in his latest picture.

He's covered with mud, dust, and a peculiarly offensive mixture of mineral oil and body make-up. He's wearing a ragged, dirty grey prison uniform, a scraggly straw hat and a sloppy pair of sandals, held to his feet by thongs which pass between his toes. In fact, he looks like the role he's playing—that of a convict in a jungle prison, in Universal's "Rio."

'LONE WOLF' WINS FANS' APPROVAL

Warren William, star of Columbia's popular "Lone Wolf" pictures, is the recipient of more than 300 letters a month from fifty "Lone Wolf Clubs" scattered throughout the country. William, appearing in his newest adventure, "The Lone Wolf Keeps a Date", revealed that most of the letters congratulate him for the manner in which he outwits crooks.

'CHAD HANNA' GREAT

When the red wheels of the colorful tent show start rolling in "Chad Hanna" movie-goers are taken to a world all new to them... full of laughter, exciting people and vivid, thrilling drama. Walter D. Edmond's famous best-selling novel, this new 20th Century-Fox Technicolor hit stars Henry Fonda, Dorothy Lamour and Linda Darnell.

MARX BROS. "GO WEST" IN COMEDY

Presenting the Marx Brothers—Groucho, Chico and Harpo—in their first "period picture," "Go West," a wild and woolly comedy laid in the 1870 outdoors.

The Marxes say this is their epic Western to end all Westerns. It is the first time anyone has ever poked fun at the big bad men, hard-boiled sirens, lovely heroines and brave heroes of the Early West. The Marxes do so by making the picture a howl from start to finish. To help things along, they don pioneer-day costumes, revamped to suit their own ideas.

EGYPTIAN PIE

Half a dozen screen players got their first taste of "Egyptian pie" during the filming of "Dark Streets of Cairo," Universal mystery-drama.

The script called for Sigrid Gurie, Ralph Byrd, Eddie Quillan, Katherine DeMille and other players in the cast to be served with the exotic confection during a cafe scene in the picture. Hollywood bakeries had never heard of the food and an Egyptian technical advisor finally supervised baking of the pie which contained flour, sugar and cracked nuts.

BROADWAY HIT NOW ON SCREEN

Having established a successful run of 235 performances as a Broadway musical comedy hit, "The Boys from Syracuse" proves an equal hit on the screen.

A Mayfair Production based on the stage play, the new film features Allan Jones, Martha Raye, Joe Penner, Rosemary Lane, Irene Hervey, Charles Butterworth, Alan Mowbray, Eric Blore and Samuel S. Hinds.
