Nuptials Read Sunday Afternoon—

The wedding of Miss Grace Condit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Condit, and Walter Mathews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Plin Mathews of Mist, was read Sunday afternoon, June 8, at the Condit home. Rev. Liston Parrish of the Woodburn Church of Christ read the ceremony before an improvised altar of green boughs, fern, and baskets of roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore traditional white. Her dress was of marquisette over satin; the veil was finger-tip length and of tulle gathered at the top with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white sweet peas, bouvardia and talisman roses.

Miss Ruby Condit was her sister's attendant. She wore a dress of aqua and carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas and roses.

Stanley Mathews, brother of the groom was best man.

Mrs. Liston Parrish sang; Mrs. Marvin Kamholz played the march.

Assisting at the reception which was also held at the bride's home, were Mrs. E. H. Condit, Mrs. Earl Condit of Portland, Miss Marjorie Mathews and Miss Eunice Larson.

Following a honeymoon trip which will take them to Yellowstone and to Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Mathews will be at home for the summer at the E. H. Condit home.

Mrs. Minnie Malmsten Presides at WMS—

The Women's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church met Wednesday afternoon of last week in the church parlor with 23 members and three visitors present. Mrs. Minnie Malmsten presided.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Judd Greenman who led the devotionals and most entertainingly reviewed a chapter of the Society's current study book, "Move On, Youth."

Mrs. LeRoy Christenson was elected delegate to the Evangelical camp meeting at Jennings Lodge and Mrs. Henry John was chosen as alternate.

The meeting was concluded with a social hour, the Martha Circle being the hostess.

IN MEMORIUM

Even death has a beautiful mission. Tho' it robs us of those we love, It lifts our hearts from surroundings.

To long for that meeting above. No matter how heavy the burden. No matter how great the despair, Doesn't Heaven seem nearer and dearer To know that our loved ones are there?

Whereas it has pleased God in His all-wise providence to remove from this earthly sphere Virgil Whitsell, beloved husband of Zoe Whitsell,

Resolved that the removal of such a life leaves a vacancy and shadow that will be deeply realized by family and friends,

Resolved that the Mountain Heart Rebekah lodge No. 243 desires to extend to Sister Zoe and her family sympathy in this bereavement.

Coast Guard Age Limit Extended

Due to the national emergency the United States Coast Guard has extended the age limit for original enlistment to 31 years. According to Chief Boatswain H. O. Nielsen, recruiting officer, Room 37 Federal Office building, Seattle, Washington, young men between 18 and 31 years of age are now eligible for enlistment in Uncle Sam's Sea Going Police Force, provided they meet certain other requirements. They must be American citizens, not married, be of good character and able to pass a rigid physical examination.

Enlistments in this arm of the military forces are for three-year periods. Opportunities for travel, education and advancement in the coast guard is greater now than ever before. Any qualified young man who desires to learn a trade and later return to civil life, or who wants to remain in the coast guard until retirement after 20 or 30 years service, should contact the recruiting office at once. Those registered under the selective service act are eligible for enlistment until they are actually inducted into the army. The Seattle recruiting office is also authorized to make enrollment of young men, between 18 and 23 years of age, for a special course of training in the Maritime Service which fits them for a career in the Merchant Marine. The physical requirements are the same as for enlistment in the coast guard.
