

LET'S BE SOCIABLE

McCabe, Anderson Wedding Read—

Gertrude McCabe and Kenneth Anderson were married Sunday morning, June 15, in the Catholic church in Roy, Oregon; Father Saul read the ceremony.

The bride, given by her father, F. P. McCabe, wore a white dress and coat with white accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rose buds and bouvardia.

Mrs. John Roediger, the bride's attendant, wore navy with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rose buds and sweet peas.

Bernard Klingsmith was best man.

Following the ceremony which was witnessed by relatives and close friends, the wedding party breakfasted at the Heathman Hotel in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are at home in the Cherry Tree apartments. Mr. Anderson is employed at the Oregon-American mill.

June Michener Given Bridal Shower—

A dainty luncheon of salad, ice box sandwiches, fruit punch and a prettily decorated cake were served to fifteen guests. Eight invited guests were unable to attend but sent gifts.

Club Holds Annual Picnic—

Members of the Vernonia Study Club met Thursday afternoon of last week for the annual picnic for which Mrs. Harry Sandon is the hostess each year. A short business meeting over which Mrs. E. J. Preston, retiring president, presided, followed the picnic luncheon served in the woods near the Sandon home.

An entertaining game which resulted in much hilarity was provided by Mrs. Hale Greenman who had charge of the program for the meeting.

Mrs. McClellan, grandmother of Mrs. Richard Fletcher, and Mrs. Hattie Ward, mother of Mrs. Harry Sandon, were guests.

Robbins-Parker Marriage Read—

Olive E. Robbins and Harold O. Parker were married Saturday morning, June 14, in Vancouver, Washington, by Reverend Paul L. Kunzman. Mrs. James Wyatt (Eve-

Mrs. Cline Writes Letter to Friends

Being alone this afternoon while the others are fishing, I will write to the home paper as many of my friends and neighbors are subscribers. My aunt, Mrs. N. B. Hall, of Waldport, Oregon, a cousin, Mrs. M. J. Zuber, of Little Rock, Arkansas, and an uncle, J. E. Dillard, of Dillard, Oregon, and I are vacationing in a four room cottage 15 miles south of Roseburg on highway 99. We spend most of our time panning gold and fishing along the Umpqua river. We're not saying how much gold we find but we are having a wonderful time.

Brother Visited

Last Saturday we drove to Klamath Falls to visit my brother, Roma Howell, whom I had not seen for five years. With him we drove to Crater Lake on Sunday. Nothing was open in the park except the post office, the Ranger information bureau and one eating place because the snow was fifteen and twenty feet high in places. The road was clear so we could get a good view of the beautiful lake. We saw a number of bears in the wilds and took several pictures of them.

On Monday we visited the great lava caves forty miles from Klamath Falls; on our way back as we crossed the mountain, we had a grand view of Mt. Shasta in California. We don't know how good the pictures we took of the mountain will be as it was said to be 90 miles away.

Trip Planned

We are planning next week a trip to the head of Graves' creek where there have been millions of dollars of gold mined. So if I don't bring home a nugget it won't be because I haven't tried.

In about ten days, we expect to leave for the coast where Mrs. Zuber, my cousin, will visit another cousin whom she had never seen until she arrived in Oregon. It was only by chance mention being made by E. E. Mills of Waldport of a Mrs. Gunderson in Yachats that brought the meeting about. Mrs. Zuber wondered if the lady were a relative of hers. Upon driving to the Gunderson Cottages, the ladies, Mrs. Zuber and Mrs. Gunderson, discovered they are cousins, their mothers being sisters.

Mrs. B. J. Cline

Mrs. Cline adds that she expects to spend the Fourth here in Vernonia.

Teagarden comes to Portland from Hollywood where he has just completed "Birth of the Blues" at Paramount with Bing Crosby and Mary Martin.

Teagarden is America's ranking trombonist, and no other specialist in sultry blues or rhythm tromboning has yet risen to challenge him. He was the featured trombonist for Paul Whiteman until he organized his own band.
