

LET'S BE SOCIABLE

Impressive Ceremony Read Saturday—

Miss Geraldine Cason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan C. Cason, and Joseph Roberson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Roberson, were married Saturday, July 19, in Vancouver, Washington, at the home of Reverend Earl Hanna. Only members of the two families were present for the simple but impressive ceremony.

The bride wore a rose-mist sheer ensemble with white accessories. Her corsage was of blue delphinium and bouvardia.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Roberson will be at home at 919 Washington street, Dallas, Oregon, where Mr. Roberson is employed by the Dallas Machine and Locomotive Works.

June Michener Marries July 14—

At Vancouver, Washington, Monday, July 14, Miss June Michener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Michener of Treharne, and Ellis Woodbridge, son of Mrs. Zula Woodbridge of Portland, were married. The couple was attended by the groom's mother and his sister, Mrs. Francis Car.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodbridge will make their home in Portland.

Former Vernonia Girl Marries—

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Crow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Crow of Eugene, Oregon, formerly of Vernonia where Mr. Crow was employed by the Oregon American, and Coleman Ledbetter, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ledbetter of Ellensburg, was held June 28 in the Baptist church in Ellensburg.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin cut in Grecian style with a short train. She wore a Mary Stuart cap caught with a wreath of stephanotis and a finger tip veil. She carried a white prayer book.

At the reception held in the church social hall, Mrs. Frank Lange of Vernonia assisted in serving.

Mrs. Bollinger Given Party—

The Nehalem Club, social club of the Eastern Star, met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herman Dickson to honor Mrs. E. M. Bollinger with a handkerchief shower. The Bollingers are leaving this week for their new home in Beaverton.

Nonresident anglers, who in the past have been paying $2 for a license that would give them the privilege of fishing in Oregon streams for two days, now are privileged to fish for a period of ten days but must pay a license fee of $3. This act became effective on July 1.

THOUSAND-AND-ONE PERILS MENACE TIM HOLT—

Arrayed against a fighting youth who could make his six-guns spit like lightning in a line-up of hair-raising dangers which zoom "Wagon Train" toward a new peak in thrilling excitement.

The courageous hero is portrayed by Tim Holt, who comes with his horse Duke as the star of "Wagon Train," the first of a series of outdoor thrillers.

Tim characterizes Zack Sibley, owner of a covered wagon fleet engaged in trans-desert freight hauling. In his daily business activities Zack's perils include looting road agents, marauding Comanches, intense heat, waterless days and the murderous plots of competitors.
