Eagle Items Of Past Years

ONE YEAR AGO—W. E. Burton opened a bowling alley in the Early building.

Alfred Bays was named as janitor for the Lincoln grade school building at a board of directors meeting of school district No. 47, Jt.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Malmsten purchased five yearling karakul sheep. The breed is said to be the most valuable sheep that eats grass.

FIVE YEARS AGO—J. F. Rose, former market man, has announced that he will open a market in connection with Fairway Foods. Mr. Rose came to Vernonia in 1930 as manager of the MacMarr market.

Mrs. C. O. Thomas, delegate from the Vernonia Townsend club, left for the national convention of Townsend clubs at Cleveland, Ohio.

Roberts and Hieber opened their check cashing exchange in the former Bank of Vernonia building.

Eagle Items Of Past Years

TEN YEARS AGO—Burglars pried open the safe at the S. P. and S. depot and secured about $60.00 in cash. The Standard Oil company and the Vernonia Service station were also entered but sustained trifling losses.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO—Some enterprising men have sponsored the idea of a swimming hole in the new city park. Messrs. Bush, Kullander, Schwab and McGraw started the movement. A log has been dragged across the stream near the flag pole, forming a dam.

Although only one month was required to take the 1940 census, the Census Bureau spent a year and a half preparing for the task and will need three and a half years more to digest and tabulate the collected information. The bill for this gigantic undertaking will be approximately $45,000,000, or about 35 cents per capita.

Date of final publication: August 1st, 1941.
