News of the Theatre

VALLEE PREFERS STRAIGHT HAIR

A "new" Rudy Vallee co-stars with Helen Parrish in Universal's "Too Many Blondes."

For his first screen appearance in several seasons, Rudy has abandoned his famous curly hair and is seen with straight locks.

His appearance created a sensation among his friends, but Rudy had no special explanation to give them for the marked change. "I just thought I'd see how it looked that way, and I liked it," he grinned.

TRACY, ROONEY REPEAT "BOYS TOWN" CHARACTERS

For three years, ever since the release of "Boys Town," thousands of motion picture-goers have asked for a sequel to that fascinating true-life film, telling further of Father Flanagan's fight for homeless and unwanted boys. "Men of Boys Town," again starring Spencer Tracy and Mickey Rooney, comes as the answer to those requests.

It is a dramatic, punchy, two-fisted story of Father Flanagan's battle against all forms of cruelty in the corrective treatment of youth. For Father Flanagan believes that there is no such thing as a bad boy, and has proved it at his City of Little Men where there are neither guards nor fences.

LUGOSI KNOWN AS 'DRACULA'

Bela Lugosi is perhaps better known as "Dracula," the character he created in the famous horror film, than he is by his real name.

Lugosi currently plays the dread role of the keeper of the cats in Universal's "The Black Cat." He was a star of Shakespeare, Ibsen and other classics in the Royal Theatre of Hungary before he was 20.

In "The Black Cat," Lugosi is co-starred with Basil Rathbone, Hugh Herbert and Brod Crawford.

TREASURE HUNT BASIS OF MELODRAMA

Shadowy spectres, a haunted castle and a life and death struggle for a buried treasure furnish suspense and thrills in Universal's shock-drama, "Horror Island."

Dick Foran, popular action hero; Leo Carrillo, famous character personality, and Peggy Moran, screen beauty, head the brilliant group of players.

'LOVE CRAZY' IS HIT ATTRACTION

With William Powell and Myrna Loy teamed in their maddest, merriest series of comedy adventures, "Love Crazy," comes soon to the Joy Theatre.

The screen's famous husband and wife find discord in the new picture when Myrna becomes jealous of Gail Patrick and wants to divorce Powell. He learns that an insane man cannot be divorced so stages all manner of queer antics to feign insanity. But the trouble is that he fools the alienists who take him seriously and want to bundle him off to an asylum.

Then his frantic efforts to prove he isn't crazy make him appear all the crazier.

American Income Rises 34 Cents; Living Costs Up 6 Cents Over 1940

PURCHASING POWER JULY, 1941, Compared with JULY, 1940

THE above chart, showing how the average American fared in national income changes in the last twelve months, is based on the monthly consumers' study of Investors Syndicate of Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Public in July had a "real income" of $1.34, or an increase of thirty-four cents on the dollar over the same 1940 month. This "real income" is not a subtraction of cash income and expenditures, but an average relative of these figures designed to show how living costs affect adjusted income dollars.

Cash income of Mr. and Mrs. Public in July was $1.41 for every $1 a year earlier. This gain of forty-one cents on the dollar resulted from the following changes per dollar: wages up fifty-eight cents and salaries twenty-six cents; investment income was up thirteen cents and other income was up thirty-three cents on the dollar. Rents in July were up two cents over a year ago. Food was up six cents, but clothing was up one cent. Miscellaneous items were nine cents higher than in July of 1940.

Have you ever worked in a store?

It doesn't take long, when you work behind a counter, to find out that when things are advertised they sell better than when they are not.

In other words, advertising means more goods sold and more manufactured.

And that means more jobs in stores and factories.

That's worth keeping in mind—advertising makes jobs.
