Loggers Conquer St. Helens Eleven

The Vernonia Loggers won their first Columbia County league game at St. Helens last Friday evening by an 18 to 0 score to start them on the way to a second consecutive county championship.

The first score came four and one-half minutes in the second quarter as the result of a drive from the Vernonia 48-yard line with Hall and Sunnell carrying the ball. The second tally was made by Sunnell in a play starting at the 13-yard line.

An intercepted pass accounted for the third score of the game. The punting as done for Vernonia by Robert Roeser was an outstanding part of the game from reports that have been made. Roeser's performance was the best ever seen, according to one observation, by a high school player.

McCoy Gives Probable Lineup

News of the Theatre

"KITTY FOYLE" FILMED IN FIRST PERSON—

Unusual both for its honesty and for its radical "first person" technique in revealing the innermost thoughts of its principal character, Ginger Rogers' new RKO Radio film, "Kitty Foyle," sets a new record in Hollywood offerings. The picture, taken from Christopher Morley's much-discussed novel, covers an eleven-year period in the career of a little Irish stenographer whose heart is constantly getting in the way of her head, and it is said to give the versatile star her finest opportunity for realistic characterization.

'DIVE BOMBER' FILMED AT U. S. NAVAL AIR BASE—

Errol Flynn and Fred MacMurray head a company of 150 film makers who went to the naval air base, San Diego, to film Warner Bros.' U. S. Navy air thriller "Dive Bomber." The film had full government approval, and shows advanced naval

San Francisco Mounted Posse and "Canine Police" Revue— to Show at Pacific International Livestock Exposition Portland, October 4 to 11

According to T. B. Wilcox, Jr., President of Pacific International Livestock Exposition, this year's program of entertainment will equal any held in the past from a standpoint of quality and variety.

A feature attraction—the San Francisco Mounted Posse. This posse—famous for its smart appearance and spectacular drill—is comprised of 21 men whose saddle outfits alone cost from $1000 to $1,500 apiece.

Another main event—the "Canine Police" Revue—presents Doberman Pinschers trained to the highest degree of efficiency in Police work—accomplishing amazing feats—such as hurdling a 9-foot wall without assistance—guarding any given object against theft, and many others. An event of special interest to many will be the thrilling driving competition by 6-Horse Draft Teams.

In addition to these special feature numbers at each performance in the big arena, plenty of thrills can be expected from the Rodeo, under direction of that well-known veteran producer, Verne Elliott, and his associate Don Nesbit, assisted by Abe Lefton as announcer and with Homer Holcomb, clown of clowns, adding the comedy touch.

Entries in the Horse Show supply contrast with brilliant exhibitions of skilled horsemen and women and their mounts.

Exhibits at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition will include Beef and Dairy Cattle, Sheep and Goats, Hogs, Horses, Poultry, Pet Stock, Dogs, Land Products, and Industrial Exhibits. An outstanding exhibit will be one supplied by the United States War Department.

al attack and defense tactics which, it is said, will do more than any other feature ever filmed to acquaint the public with the superb power and organization of this branch of the government service. "Dive Bomber" was filmed in technicolor.

"PLAY GIRL" IS DANGEROUS LADY OF LEISURE—

Bristling with spicy situations and smart dialogue, and cleverly blending emotional drama with sophisticated comedy, "Play Girl," stars Kay Francis in a role tailor-made to her versatile talents. Providing the pleasing romance are James Ellison and Mildred Coles.

In sharp contrast to her characterizations in "Little Men" and Deanna Durbin's "It's a Date," Miss Francis' role in "Play Girl" presents her as a glamorous fortune hunter who has lived by her wits. Thanks to her cleverly planned breach of promise suits she has done right well for herself until, on her last two campaigns she draws blanks.

"ZIEGFELD GIRL" HAILED AS MIGHTIEST MUSICAL—

Reviving the Golden Age of musicals, "Ziegfeld Girl" is acclaimed as topping the imposing list of lavish productions scheduled for 1941—also as being Hollywood's most elaborate spectacle since "The Great Ziegfeld."

The picture tells the story of three girls—Susan Gallagher, Sandra Kolter and Sheila Regan—played by Judy Garland, Hedy Lamarr and Lana Turner respectively. It tells of their jump from obscurity to fame, and its effect on their lives. The dazzle and glamour of the Follies prove too much for Sheila, who in the end, ill and disillusioned, dies on the eve of Susan's success as the Follies' new star.
