

Aged Pioneer Called by Death

MIST—Funeral services were held here Monday of last week for Mrs. Walter Shearer, an old pioneer who died Friday. She was nearly 84 years old and had spent most of her life in the Nehalem Valley. Her husband survives her. She fell a few years ago and broke her hip and since then has been in failing health. She leaves a husband, two brothers and several nieces and nephews. She was a member of the Nehalem Valley Pioneer association. Mr. Roper from Seaside is our new highway boss, having taken over last week. Mr. Hayden resigned to go to work for the Mathews' brothers. Our school is preparing a program and carnival to be given on the 29th. It promises to be pretty good. The youngsters are excited about it.

The Mist Helping Circle met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Hanson. A lovely chicken dinner was served with the usual added pot luck. The birthday anniversary, too, was celebrated for Mrs. J. O. Libel. A most gorgeous birthday cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Hanson was the center of attraction. After dinner the business meeting was called to order. It was voted to buy some new pans and bowls we are much in need of. A program will be given at a later date to raise funds. Several members were absent. Mrs. Lence Renfro was a visitor at the meeting. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Violet George.

Mrs. C. O. Hayden spent a few days last week in Portland with her mother.

Soldiers Hit Horse

A loud crash awoke the people in the upper end of the village early Thursday morning about 2 o'clock and upon investigation it was learned a car containing three soldiers had hit Mr. Kovach's horse which had broken out of pasture. The crash killed the horse, and smashed the front of the car. The occupants of the car were injured. Mrs. William Bridgers has had quite a little trouble since having her tonsils removed. She returned home recently from the hospital, then was taken back for a couple of days last week but she is home now and doing nicely.
