News of the Theatre

"DOWN IN SAN DIEGO" SMART MELODRAMA—

Thrilling action of American defense preparedness is adroitly woven into "Down in San Diego," new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture.

With a cast of talented young players directed by Robert B. Sinclair, the story concerns a group of youngsters who become involved accidentally with a spy ring in San Diego.

How the boys cooperate with the U. S. Marines in a daring capture provides a modern touch that is as new as today's newspaper headlines.

AUER COMICAL IN "CRACKED NUTS"—

Not since his stellar performance in "My Man Godfrey" has Mischa Auer been assigned a role so thoroughly suited to his own original brand of humor as the one he portrays in Universal's new laugh sensation, "Cracked Nuts."

In "Cracked Nuts," Auer portrays the self-styled inventor of a mechanical man. Mischa, it is said, has been afforded the opportunity to bring into play every mirth-jerking trick he has ever wanted to try out on audiences.

PAYNE, SONJA HENIE STAR IN "SUN VALLEY SERENADE"—

The new entertainment triumph from 20th Century-Fox, "Sun Valley Serenade," starring Sonjo Henie and John Payne is slated to open soon at the Joy Theatre.

With a featured cast headed by the nation's number one band, Glenn Miller and his Orchestra, and including Milton Berle, Lynn Bari, Joan Davis and the Nicholas Brothers, this new musical snows Sonja in spectacular new skating numbers and breathtaking skiing routines.

NEWLYWEDS APPEAR TOGETHER IN COMEDY—

For the first time that they have appeared together on the screen, Binnie Barnes and Mike Frankovich, who recently were married, are featured in "Tight Shoes."

One of Frankovich's assignments for the Damon Runyon film was to train Miss Barnes in prizefighting and wrestle holds so that she could make a convincing performance in her free-for-all battle with John Howard and Brod Crawford. Frankovich was a former All-American football player, and is now a leading radio sportscaster.

GANGSTER ERA IS FILM BACKGROUND—

Echoes of the bootleg liquor era, the days of the gangster chief and his mob, are heard in Universal's "Hit the Road."

Based on an incident of prohibition days, the story deals with four boys, orphaned sons of gangsters slain in an underworld mass murder. They are paroled from reform school in the custody of the man who was the chief of the gang of which their fathers were members.

NO SKATER—

Jerry Colonna, who says he draws the line at using his walrus mustache to sweep up ice, declined the job of skating in Republic's "Ice-Capades," in which he is a featured comedian. The studio prop department made the rounds of all the museums and finally located a pair of skates equipped with double runners for Colonna's special benefit.

'MODEL WIFE,' HILARIOUS STORY OF MIX-UPS—

In "Model Wife," Joan Blondell and Dick Powell step out of their real-life roles as man-and-mate to engage in one of the sprightliest series of marital mix-ups that has screwballed to the screen this season.

In the story of "Model Wife," Miss Blondell and Powell are employees at Benson's, a gown shop so exclusive one has to have a formal introduction to speak to the doorman.

License Granted Laundry

The Vernonia Laundry, managed by Joe Inouye, has been granted a federal license to continue its operation it was announced here this week. The license permits the cashing of any checks which were refused for payment after the declaration of war. The license grants the manager the right "to have your place of business remain open and operate as a generally licensed national under General License No. 68A."

SECURITIES MARKETS

Approximately half the people in America have a direct, personal interest in securities markets, either as owners of securities or as holders of life insurance policies or savings accounts.
