Application for Oregon Defense Ranger

Submitted by NEHALEM VALLEY WAR COUNCIL

I do hereby solemnly swear to defend and to protect to the best of my ability my family, my home and my country from any and all invaders, agents, individuals and organizations who seek or attempt to invade, to conquer, to destroy or to overthrow the United States of America and its form of government; to assist the government of the United States, the army, the navy, the air force, the police and other defense organizations when called upon or needed; to train, arm and equip myself, refrain from excessive use of liquor, be alert; to instantly respond in emergency or when called; to display identification bands in action or on maneuvers; to coordinate with other Ranger squads and to obey the commander's orders willingly, helpfully and efficiently at all times.

I, being of sound mind and body and believing it to be my sacred and patriotic duty, do this day solemnly sign, align and join myself until victory in won, to the O. D. R. (Oregon Defense Rangers), to defend and preserve our freedom, our country and our government, even to the last man, SO HELP ME GOD.

Book Talk . . .

By EDNA ENGEN

"Book Houses"
Annie Fellows Johnston
I always think the cover of a book is like a door which opens into someone's house where I've not been before.
A pirate or a fairy queen may lift the latch for me; I always wonder, when I knock, what welcome there will be.
"The Apprehensive Dog" by H. C. Bailey.

This is a Reggie Fortune story written in H. C. Bailey's best manner and as his fans know, that is good!

In this day and age when detective stories are as numerous as the drops in an Oregon rain storm, oddly enough good mysteries are proportionately harder to come by.

While Scotland Yard worried over the more obvious clues, Reggie Fortune, lazy and lovable, worried over the little dog that wasn't reacting at all in the approved doggie-manner.

News of the Theatre

RUBBER ROBOT—

Forced to wear heavy facial make-up and a 70-pound rubber suit for his role of a human electrical man in "Man Made Monster," Lon Chaney, Jr., lost 16 pounds during production of the chill-packed drama.

Lionel Atwill, Anne Nagel, Frank Albertson and Samuel S. Hinds have other leading roles in the Universal picture.

TARGET FOR TONIGHT—

The "full cooperation" of the Royal Air Force of Great Britain was gladly given the production, "Target for Tonight," which Warner Bros. is currently releasing, and which shows, in previously unequalled detail, the exciting business of bombing Germany by night. Only actual members of the R. A. F. are shown in the film.

CHARMING FAMILY TALE—

All the charm and quaintness of the early 1900's is captured in the enchanting film, "One Foot In Heaven." The story of a struggling minister and his typical American family is told with a grand mixture of drama and humor.

The outwardly stern, but inwardly sympathetic minister is played by Fredric March and his encouraging, understanding wife is portrayed by Martha Scott.

RUGGLES LOVES DOGS!—

Charlie Ruggles loves dogs—as pets—but not as actors!

In "The Perfect Snob," Ruggles plays the part of a veterinarian whose love for dogs ranges from Great Danes to toy terriers. Twenty-five dogs in all share scenes with Ruggles throughout the picture, much to the well-known comic's displeasure. It seems that the cute canines steal most of his scenes!

ALTITUDE—

Ray Middleton, the tall, dark, and handsome lad, who is being hailed by film critics as the "Find of 1941," is one of the tallest men in the movies, being six feet, three inches tall. He weighs 190 pounds, and is an excellent athlete. Middleton's latest film is Republic's "Hurricane Smith."

ASTAIRE STEPS OUT—

Fans who complain Fred Astaire hasn't danced enough in recent pictures will be pleasantly surprised by "You'll Never Get Rich."

The star has four dance numbers in this Columbia musical with Rita Hayworth and all of them are spectacular enough to rank with the hottest hoofing he has ever done on the screen.

Cole Porter, one of Broadway's greatest composers, wrote the songs and lyrics for "You'll Never Get Rich."

USE 600 HORSES—

Six hundred horses, all motion-picture trained were used during the filming of Columbia's "West of Abilene," outdoor drama which stars Charles Starrett with Marjorie Cooley.

SPEED DIFFERENCE

When two identical automobiles are driven over the same 1,000-mile course, one at 25 miles an hour and the other at 65, the latter consumes 60 per cent more gasoline and 800 per cent more oil, and causes 700 per cent more wear on tires.

Sergeant Expects 60-Day Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis motored to Fort Lewis Friday to bring home their son, Sergeant Harold Davis, home. Harold expects to be home on 60-day leave while waiting for a call to report to flying school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Elliott and family motored to Seaside Sunday.

Friday evening callers at the Perry Browning home were Otto Boeck of Cascade Locks, Mrs. V. H. Creson and Mrs. L. C. Boeck of Springfield, L. A. Boeck and Mr. and Mrs. William Larson of Birkenfeld.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Baker and son accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Al Pierce and family motored to Garibaldi Sunday where the party dug clams. They then visited with the Wallace Bergerson family formerly from here and were dinner guests of the E. Carlson family, also former Vernonia residents.

Mrs. L. C. Boeck of Springfield spent Friday night with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Vurl Roberts motored to Seaside Sunday. They returned home by way of Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. O'Brien and family were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Perry Browning and son accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Pat McAuley and son clam digging near Gearhart Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Baker and son were Saturday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathon Counts.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Michener were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lindsey.

Oliver Mellinger and Homer Inman spent Saturday fishing at St. Helens.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Derebery and a friend from Portland were Sunday callers at the Perry Mellinger home.

A quilting party met at the home of Mrs. Otto Michener. Those present were Mrs. Phil Mills, Mrs. T. C. Biggs, Mrs. H. Thacker and Mrs. Wilbur Thacker.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mellinger and children motored to Portland Friday night to attend the Jefferson Senior Class play.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mellinger and Mrs. Perry Browning were callers Monday night at Forest Grove.
