Evangelical Church Has Father-Son Meeting

J. Walton Kemp, pastor of the Astoria Lutheran church was guest speaker last Thursday night when the Albright Brotherhood of the Evangelical church held their annual father and son get-together.

Chester Weed of Astoria sang several songs, accompanied by Miss Harriet Richards.

Judd Greenman, representing the fathers, gave a short talk and welcome for the sons. E. H. Condit responded ably for the sons.

The evening closed with the serving of refreshments by the hosts for the affair, Sidney Malmsten and Henry John. Oscar Weed was general chairman of the program.

Library Board Serves as Hostesses

Members of the board of the Vernonia Public Library and the librarian, Miss Zonweiss Douglass, served as hostesses at a tea held at the city hall on Library Day, Tuesday, November 17. Mesdames W. O. Livingston, Paul Gordon, Harry Culbertson, John Hatfield, and Franklin Malmsten are the board members.

Although the attendance was small, those who attended, between 7:00 and 9:00 o'clock, had a lovely time. Tea and wafers were served. Decorations were gourds and vases of ferns and barberry.

Thirty-four books from J. K. Gill arrived just in time for display there. The board will meet Tuesday night to determine which of these books, if not all, shall be kept. Also displayed were the 16 books just purchased by the library, and approximately 200 state library books.

Plans are for a similar affair next year.

Benefit Luncheon Well Attended

Attendance was reported good at the Eastern Stars war benefit luncheon Saturday; that is, considering the weather. Although the exact use of the proceeds has not been determined, part of it will go for comfort kits and the rest for some war relief.

Sadie Hawkins Dance Is Well Attended

Betty Olson was "femcee" at Vernonia high school's annual Sadie Hawkins dance held last Friday night at the school gym. The large attendance and the elaborate decorations both contributed to its success. Jonnibel Hatfield was chairman of the decoration committee. Douglas Ruh and Kathleen Tomlin were judged the most appropriately dressed boy and girl present. Punch and donuts were served by the Girls' League, and games were a deviation from dancing.

The daily cost to France of German occupation would build 2,500 modern workman's homes.

Wartime Makes Your Hometown Newspaper Doubly Important to You

In fact, we believe it is important that every home in Vernonia should subscribe to the Eagle

In the hope of increasing our subscription list we are offering:

One box of fine stationery

FREE

With each $2.00 subscription for 1 year, new or renewal to the

VERNONIA EAGLE

We feel that stationery is especially appropriate when so many of our friends and relatives are in the service and begging for letters. Use it yourself or as a Christmas gift.

The deadline on this offer is SATURDAY, JANUARY 2.

Here's why wartime makes The Eagle doubly important to you:

1. It keeps its readers informed of campaigns such as salvage drives which need the support of the entire town.
2. The "who, what, when, where and why" of rationing programs and registrations are printed for the convenience of its readers.
3. When a practice blackout is ordered by civilian defense for Vernonia, The Eagle will be the most important medium through which it is announced.
4. Shortages of many items makes it worthwhile to watch The Eagle classified columns.
5. It informs the residents of the community of the merchants' latest additions in stock, thus acting as a shopping aid.

IN ADDITION TO THESE REASONS YOU MIGHT CONSIDER THAT THE EAGLE COSTS LESS THAN 4c A WEEK, AND IS THE BEST WAY TO KEEP UP ON LOCAL NEWS.
