Mist Man Dies In Portland Recently

MIST—Jack Neep, who made his home for a number of years in the Mist vicinity, most of the earlier years with the Knowles family, passed away in Portland last week. He was buried at Cornelius.

Mr. Neep had recently had an operation and was thought to be recovering. He returned to the village for a few days and suddenly became worse. His brother took him to the hospital.

This community will miss "Red" as he was called. He was a familiar figure on the Mist street and around the village grocery. A few years ago he was to be found doing odd jobs for the neighbors, but of late wasn't well. He leaves a sister, a brother, and perhaps other relatives. He lived by himself at Spikeville, north of the village.

Timber Service Men Honored

To recognize Timber boys in the service, the Timber Sub-deb club is sponsoring a service honor roll and dedicated it Sunday, April 11. The dedication program, which took place in front of the honor roll, opened with the flag salute led by two Sub-Deb girls in club uniforms.

Reverend Mathew Jonas, the Timber pastor, gave the invocation dedication speech and benediction. Group singing of our national anthem, following the invocation, and of "God Bless America" closed the program. Bette Ramsey, club president, was mistress of ceremonies.

The service board at present contains 52 names.

TRANSPORTATION RUMORS FALSE

Rumors now circulating to the effect that the office of defense transportation intends to apply priorities to civilian train and bus travel are completely and entirely false says Joseph B. Eastman. However, passenger transportation facilities are under severe strain and people who have no real need to travel should stay off trains and busses.
