Bobby New giving his little red-haired niece a bike ride... Mrs. Albin Colson having a list of everything she had to do while downtown Saturday... Rose Steen noticing John Erickson's new shoes... The presence of the younger generation being noticeable in the daytime now that school is out... Pete Shipman finding out that owning a car isn't quite as much fun as it might be—especially so since his car has had four flat tires so far this week and in addition has suffered a broken tail light (moral: don't let your girl drive your car)... Florence Bowerman's and Phyllis McCrae's babies being admired downtown Tuesday... Kids wading in Rock Creek anxious for the dam to be put in... Dick Benjamin Fletcher making sure he would be the first in the barber shop by sitting outside the door at 1:00 o'clock... Maybe it wasn't fair to put in Dick's second name...

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Our men in the service in this war have pretty definite ideas about what they're fighting for and the way they want to find our country when they come back...don't you think so, Judge?"
"I certainly do, George. Just a week or so ago I was reading in a national magazine the results of a poll taken among our soldiers. Each man was given a questionnaire containing twenty-five 'assignments' for the folks at home. He was asked to check the first five in order of importance to him.

"Out of thousands of replies the first 'assignment' to the folks back home was 'Make sure I'll have a job in my chosen field of work when I get back'. Number 5 was 'Make sure that Prohibition isn't put over on us again.'
"When the men in the last war came home and found prohibition had been put over on them behind their backs they were sore as boils. You can see from what I just told you how they feel about it this time, too."
