Farewell Party Given At Mist for Melises

MIST—Many neighbors and friends gathered at the A. R. Melis home Wednesday evening, September 1 to give them a farewell party. Mr. and Mrs. Melis are leaving the farm after living there 48 years. They are selling the place to their son, Charles Melis.

A good many guests were present and a sociable evening was spent in games. A poem written by the "amateur poetess" for this special occasion was read by Mrs. Ray Garlock. At the close a delicious lunch was served and a lovely chenille bed spread was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Melis. At midnight the guests took their departure unwilling to lose such faithful neighbors of so long a standing.

For the present they will live at Vernonia, later locating somewhere permanently.

Nehalem Social club Meets Wednesday

The Nehalem Social club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Sandon at Wilark in the first meeting since early summer. At that time tentative plans for a card party were made.

USED IN QUANTITIES

Fifty fighting planes can use up 300,000 rounds of small-arms ammunition in one minute. This is as much as 10,000 men in Napoleon's army would have used in a day's battle.

FDR says:

Every worker should increase the amount of bonds he or she is buying.

GIVE YOUR CHILD A GOOD START

The least you can do for your school child is to send him to school with a good breakfast under his belt—the kind of a meal that will help keep him alert and eager to do his best. A recommended menu includes fruit, a whole grain cereal, toast, and eggs; vary your breakfasts, but keep them wholesome. And for a fine selection of breakfast foods, shop Sam's Grocery.

KEEP OREGON GREEN

EVERY FIRE IS AN AXIS FIRE!

MY JIMMY NEEDS YOUR HELP!

Jimmy's over there now, fighting our enemies to keep the Stars and Stripes flying.

"Before he left, he told me they are going to need more equipment, more ammunition and more food for INVASION of enemy lands.

"The more bonds the folks at home buy—the more they'll be helping us fighters to win. That's what Jimmy said."

The 3rd War Loan of 15 billion dollars must produce the money to pay for these essentials to victory.

Buy at least one EXTRA $100 Bond besides your regular bond purchases—many will have to invest thousands!

Don't think that what you do isn't important. It will take all every individual in America can raise to put this 3rd War Loan over the top. So buy more bonds out of your pay—out of extra income—out of "rainy-day" funds!

The quicker you do that the more you'll help Jimmy and our other boys smash through to Victory.

What do you say? It's the safest, soundest investment you'll ever make! Let's go!
