

"We Are Buying War Bonds—Are You?"

Part of Sgt. Edward Straube's left foot was shot away at Ferryville, near Bizerte, North Africa. At Halloran General Hospital, Staten Island, N. Y., they are building up his foot again. Sgt. Straube, from Perth Amboy, N. J., buys War Bonds regularly.

Sgt. Bernard Kello, 22, of New York, was wounded by snipers during the Sicilian campaign. His grandparents live in Naples, and he has a brother in the army. Both buy War Bonds regularly. Do you do as much?

Technician 5th Grade John A. Wisniewski, 25, of Door, Mich., lost his right eye, three fingers and suffered chest wounds from shrapnel in the fight to capture Tunis. He is now recovering at Halloran and is a regular War Bond purchaser.

Pvt. Bernard Heidemann's left leg will be two inches shorter when he is discharged from Halloran. He was wounded by a German bullet during the operations in Sicily last August. His home is Chicago. He has been in traction since Sept. He's buying bonds.

The nickname of Pvt. Milton Lieberman, 27, of Brooklyn, is "Clark Gable." He was wounded in Sicily last August and has been at Halloran since October. Every payday $12.50 is taken out for War Bonds Lieberman is buying. How many do you buy?

Verne Hansen, Natal grange; Daniel and Donald Heman, Beaver Valley grange.

The Pomona grange charter was draped in memorium of the late A. L. Morris of Yankton grange and Narcissus Parcher of Beaver Valley grange.

One of the largest classes in the history of the Columbia county Pomona grange was initiated into the degree of Pomona. The work was beautifully and impressively exemplified by the degree team.

Mrs. Laura Carmichael of Natal directed the lecturer's hour with a program of singing and instrumental numbers.

STUDENTS GET EYE TESTS

Miss Ruth Peffley, county health nurse and Ethel Fortner, representative of the state board of health, were at the Washington grade school Monday to examine the students eyes and were glad to report that there were no serious cases in the local school.

about ROASTS...

Whether to cook that roast in the oven (by dry heat) or in a covered pot (by moist heat)—it's a simple thing to decide once you've learned the difference. As a general rule heavy-muscled meat needs to be pot roasted or simmered. Tender meat—oven roasted. But it's really worth the trouble to learn to identify the most popular roasts by sight.

These Are Some of the Most Popular

POT ROASTS (Cook With Moist Heat)	OVEN ROASTS (Cook With Dry Heat)
Beef Shoulder	Rib Roast (Beef)
Heel of Round (Beef)	Rump Roast (Beef)
Rump Roast (Beef)	Sirloin Roast (Beef)
Beef Brisket	Loin of Pork
Plate Boil (Beef)	Leg of Pork
Corned Beef	Veal Shoulder
Short Ribs (Beef)	Lamb Shoulder
	Veal Legs
	Lamb Legs
	Picnics
	Hams

You can't beat home baking, and it's so easy!

Remember how wonderful mother's baking tasted? Any woman can bake breads, pastries, cakes, rolls, biscuits and muffins fully as good as Mother used to make 'em—and a lot easier! Today's modern facilities and conveniences for home baking would have been 'way out of this world to Mother!

Enriched Flours make it better!

Now, since government standards require certain minimums in vitamins and iron, home-baked goods made with enriched flour mean more nutrition for your family. Here is further good reason for home-baking. Best reason of all is the increased enjoyment and satisfaction you will gain from making your own bread, pies and pastries. Wouldn't it be a good idea to check up on your supplies and get started this week?
