1944 Folies to Open April 19

The Folies Bergere of 1944, Clifford C. Fischer's brilliant musical production which opens for a limited engagement on April 19 is expected to bring another record crowd to the Portland Arena, the home of great entertainment.

More than 120 persons are in the cast of the new Folies, which Fischer believes is more colorful and spectacular than any of his previous shows.

The costumes are more vivid and breathtaking than ever before in a Fischer production, and the novel sets are changed with lightning skill as the show moves from classical ballet scenes to the hearty gaiety of a Normandy farm.

Basing a prediction on the audiences which have been thrilled by previous Clifford C. Fischer productions, the management of the Portland Arena encourages mail orders as a convenient way of obtaining tickets, and saving gas, tires and time.

The Portland Arena has been transformed from its winter sports atmosphere to a scene of gaiety where more than 120 people, including 80 lovely girls, will frolic through the sparkling show.

Tickets will be on sale at the Portland Arena and J. K. Gill, S.W. 5th and Stark, beginning April 1.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I was just tellin' my brother Fred this morning, Judge...there's never been a time in our lives when we got to live up to that old sayin' 'United we stand, divided we fall' more than we have to today."

"How true that is, Herb. And for the life of me, I can't figure out why, at a time like this, some folks insist on raising a question like prohibition. I can't imagine anything that would tickle our enemies more than to get us folks over here taking sides against each other, arguing about an issue like that. We've got a he-man's job on our hands to win this war and we can't be wasting our minds, our money and our strength fighting about something we tried for nearly 14 years and found couldn't work.

"I say there's a time and a place for everything, and this is no time or place to be doing any fightin' except the kind that's going to win the war."
