

Those Who Are In It

ARRIVES IN ENLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cason received word this week that their son, Captain Harold G. Cason, has recently arrived in England. Since arriving there he says mail has taken an increase in value to him and he wishes to hear from his friends. His address may be obtained by calling Mr. or Mrs. Cason.

GETS MEDICAL DISCHARGE

MIST — Chas. Melis arrived home last week, having received a medical discharge from the marines. He has been very ill with rheumatic fever.

VISITS PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marshall who are both in the armed forces he serving in the Marines and she in the WAC's are visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. Dave Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. E.W. French while on furlough.

SURVIVES WRECK

Word was received this week that Howard Rundell will be home within the next few days on a 15-day leave from the navy. He was one of 15 survivors from the ship, John Straub, which broke in half in the Alaskan waters two weeks ago.

MEETS COLUMBIA COUNTY RESIDENT

Melvin Powell, AMM 2/c of Vernonia was very pleased to meet his first Columbia county resident since going over seas. He was Bob Gray, AMM 2/c of St. Helens. Both boys had a long chat about friends they knew, both from Vernonia and St. Helens. Both boys have been in New Hebrides for about a year.

Meetings To Close Sunday

The revival meetings at the Assembly of God church with Rev. W. T. Mugford, will come to a close Sunday evening.

There will be another all-day service on Sunday with a mass meeting in the afternoon, at which time Rev. Mugford will speak on the subject, "From an English Pit to an American Pulpit."

An interesting message will also be delivered Thursday evening when he will speak on "Salem's Sad Supper." The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Girls League to Sponsor Tea

The high school girls league is planning a mothers tea for the afternoon of May 16. Invitations for the tea will be issued soon. The wearing apparel will range will be a style show in which the clothing stores of Vernonia will be represented. This will be a spring and summer style show. The wearing apparel will range from work and play togs to formal and evening wear.

The glee club and other musical features will also be part of the program. All of the girls in the high school will in some way participate in the program. This occasion will climax the years school events.

CLOTHING SITUATION IN FRANCE STRINGENT

Various groups in France — such as postal service employees, police, and young married couples — are given priority to purchase a certain amount of clothing, the French press and information service reports, and there is almost nothing left for the remainder of the population.

DOG SERVES IN NEW GUINEA

Duke, a German shepard dog from Boston, joined the army 13 months ago. Teamed with an army sergeant, he served in New Guinea, through the Cape Gloucester campaign, and is now moving up this jungle coast with U.S. Marines in pursuit of retreating Japs, the Navy department said. Duke could scent and "point" a Jap three-quarters of a mile away, and has flushed scores of Japs, has been through more than 60 air raids, can dive for a foxhole like any Marine, and the sergeant says, "He's the smartest dog I've ever seen."

WAR BONDS in Action

Reeling out wire from an RL 31. In the steaming jungles of New Georgia—rain, insects and the everlasting muck. The jungle is definitely Jap infested as well, but your War Bonds can be a mighty effective Jap insecticide. Buy them and hold 'em! U. S. Treasury Department

UNITED NATIONS AT WAR

MILITARY VEHICLES SENT TO ALLIES

Almost 23,000 tanks and 750,000 other military motor vehicles—tank destroyers, trucks, jeeps—were sent from the United States to our allied forces between March 11, 1941, and the first of this year, the Foreign Economic Administration stated. More than 35,000 tanks and 1,150,000 other vehicles were retained for our own war needs.

FRENCHWOMEN NOW DRIVE AMBULANCES

Young Frenchwomen are training in Marengo, North Africa, to drive army ambulances and serve with the men who "are going to liberate their beloved France", says the French press and information service.

OCCUPATION ARMY TAKES HORSES

Free France, a publication of the French press and information service, tells how the German army of occupation in France has requisitioned most of the farm horses, taking even the last animal on farms, thus demoralizing farm work. Those horses not yet taken are overworked and underfed.

AUSSIES, TOO, HAVE GAS TROUBLE

"There is no likelihood of an increase in the gasoline ration in Australia," declares the Aust-

lian news and information bureau "Cases where long distances and pressure of work make more gasoline necessary will be examined on their merits," the bureau says.

FLASH BOMBS HAVE 170 MILLION CANDLE-POWER

The largest magnesium flash bombs for taking aerial pictures at night have a peak flash intensity of 170 million candle-power, the British information services report. "Night photography is proving of immense value to the R.A.F. in the systematic elimination of enemy targets."

ALLIES DROP CHEESE CARDS ON GERMANY

The German police warned the people that any attempt to use the imitation cheese "ration cards" dropped from Allied airplanes on their recent trips over the Reich would bring "severe penalties, a Swiss newspaper reported to the office of war information."
