Rainbow Girls Attend Assembly

Oregon's eight annual assembly, Order of Rainbow for girls was held at Cottage Grove, June 2 and 3 and was attended by the following girls from the local assembly: Helen Fowler, Jackie Rollins, Willette Floater, Tommie Lou Holcomb, Jonnibel Hatfield and Joy Willard.

They were accompanied by their mother advisor, Mrs. John Hatfield. While in Cottage Grove, the girls were guests at the home of Mrs. Madge Mote, aunt of Mrs. Hatfield.

Miss Mary Beth Lish Bride of Lewis Lane

The wedding of Mary Beth Lish, daughter of the late George W. Lish of Olympia and Frank Lewis Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Lane of Wilark, was an event of May 28. The double ring ceremony was read in the chapel of the White Temple by Rev. Gilbert B. Christian. Members of the two families were present.

Mrs. Helen Rainey was matron of honor for her sister. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Cpl. James Rainey. She wore a light blue wool dressmaker suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Marion T. Lewis acted as best man. A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of Mrs. William J. Butcher.

Grand Office Received at Assembly

Jonnibel Hatfield, Past Worthy Advisor of Nehalem Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls was appointed Grand Fidelity of the Grand Assembly of Oregon at its recent convention.

About 300 Rainbow girls and mother advisors from all over the state attended the assembly, which was held at Cottage Grove this year.

Do You Like to Eat Good Food?

That, perhaps, is a foolish question to ask anyone for all of us like to eat, but, while we like to eat, we also like to eat good food.

That is where we at King's Grocery come into the picture. By displaying good groceries and meats we make it possible for you to prepare good food when you stock your larder from our store.

There is just one way for you to prove that statement—purchase your food needs from King's.

Behind Her...the Armies of a Nation

Through many wars American soldiers have fought for the ideals the Statue of Liberty represents . . . that is the case today with the invasion of Europe.

LET'S BACK THOSE SOLDIERS TO THE LIMIT IN THE 5TH WAR LOAN

You, too, can help keep the ideal of that statue alive by purchasing as many war bonds as possible.
