The Forum

To the editor of the Vernonia Eagle:

I, myself, am with Pvt. George N. Hult 100 per cent on keeping Columbia county wet. As for myself, I do not drink, but as others like a drink once in awhile why not let them have it. Our boys are gone to give their all for a bit of freedom. Now, why not let them that return home have the comfort of a drink?

I say there are just a few too many who wish to interfere with the business of others. I, myself, would rather see the saloons like they were some 50 years ago. You never saw a teenage drunk on the street or any other place. A man or boy went in, got himself a drink and went out again. It seems to me the more some interfere, the worse they make matters. And, if the county is dry, wont bootleggers sprout up over night and everybody will sneak around and buy, MIST—We were pleased to welcome some of the members of a family of earlier days, who have been gone some over ten years. Most of you remember the Eks, who lived across the river. Leonard and his sister, Gertrude, are both married. Leonard works in a laboratory in Detroit, Mich. Another sister, Ellen, is also in Mich. She's a nurse. The father, John Ek, has been working a number of years in the shipyard in Portland, where the Eks have a home. An older brother is in the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Turner arrived here from Portland Sat. to wreck the old Turner house and use the lumber to build on their property in McMinnville. They started working on it Sun. morn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sears were here from McMinnville Wed. visiting at the Joe Rossier home. Lloyd left for the navy Thurs.

Austin Corll was in the village Sat., from his home on the Clatskanie Mt.

Mrs. Donald Sundland entertained her sister, Lillian over the week end.

Judge and Mrs. Gault Patton were here from Seaside Sun., and spent the day with Earl Roper family.

Reed Holding has bought one of the tie mills owned by Hughes and Jepson.

Henry Kleabber was helping Pete Knowles hay Sun.

paying all the way from $2.50 per pint to $20 a gallon.

Here is luck to the boys overseas and elsewhere. They will find Columbia county wet when they arrive.
