

TOWN and FARM in WARTIME

Prepared by OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION

BLUE TOKENS TO BE DISCONTINUED

If you've got some blue tokens in your purse, better use them now, because after September 30 they will be good only for the kids to play with. Until next Sunday, the OPA says, you can use them just as you always have used them. Beginning Sunday, September 17, retailers will cease giving blue tokens to consumers as ration change, and shoppers will be able to spend them only in groups of ten. If necessary, shoppers may pool tokens to make up groups of 10. Removal of practically all canned and bottled vegetables and fruit spreads and specialties from rationing September 17 makes use of blue tokens unnecessary. Beginning September 17 point values on canned fruits, canned juices, canned tomatoes, catsup and chili sauce will be designated in multiples of ten.

MORE ABOUT TIRE INSPECTION RECORDS

Keep those tire inspection records until you get your new mileage rationing record along with your new A book, OPA says. Since discontinuance of periodic tire inspection last April, tire inspection records have been kept primarily as a record of gasoline rations issued each automobile, and will no longer be necessary when the new form is issued. Outside the East Coast States, the new A book will go into use September 22, and in 17 East Coast States, February ninth.

STOVE RATIONING TO SLACKEN

The rationing of coal and wood stoves to consumers will end October 15, the WPB and OPA have announced, although rationing of oil and gas stoves will continue. Supplies of coal and wood stoves have grown sufficiently since Nation-wide rationing started in August, 1943, to make continued rationing unnecessary.

SHOE RATIONING TO CONTINUE UNABATED

Civilians cannot hope for an early end to shoe rationing, WPB says, unless imports of hides increase or unless there is a large cutback in military orders. Hide shortages continue in spite of a large domestic kill of cows and calves. Heavy civilian and military consumption and decreased imports account for the shortages.

SOME LUMBER AVAILABLE FOR FARMERS

From trees cut from their own farms, the farmer may receive up to 5000 feet of lumber annually without certification, WPB says. The farmer may receive an unlimited amount of lumber from his own trees if he takes them to a sawmill that cuts less than 100,000 board feet annually and therefore is not subject to restriction.

ROUND-UP

A prospective spread in the shortage of smaller truck tires will affect principally small trucks such as farm trucks and those used in delivering milk, bakery products and laundry, the ODT says. . . France has been the most important source of manpower, raw materials and industrial products among all the occupied countries, the FEA reports. . . American troops in Australia have taught the Australians to like sweet corn, and the 1945 Australian crop will yield 35 million ears, the Dept. of Commerce reports. . . Housewives can help the national food situation and their families by using more onions in late September and early October when storage space will be scarce, WPA says. . . While food properly canned will last longer, in normal times of food plenty home economists recommend eating them within the year, the Dept. of Agriculture says.

From a transport in New Guinea American members of hospital units are carrying medicine and instruments provided by War Bond dollars.

How many will they succor? How many dead will they find? How many will never return? We do not know but we do know our daily conduct can make an earlier end of the war.

TO VIRGINIA McMULLEN

In Memorial To Harry McMullen
I love the little home on the corner,
Built for two lovers and their little two;
Where the honey-bees play in the locust
That bloomed each year for you.

I love the little home on the corner,
The roses you planted there;
All the lovely things you gave me
For me and mine to share.

I love the little home on the corner,
A scene of old New England at my door;
As I watch the cattle grazing:
As tho there wasn't any war.

I love the little home on the corner,
Built by your hands, lover dear
May it always stand as a token
Of our happily married years.
By Eva C. Clark
