

LET'S BE SOCIABLE

Annual Armistice Dinner Successful

The annual Armistice Day potluck dinner was very successful and enjoyed by everyone who attended the event at the Legion hall that evening.

The next meeting of the Legion Auxiliary will be held November 20. Plans for the teachers' reception will be discussed. Five boxes for the Red Cross will be filled at the meeting.

Rainbow Girls Initiate Two

Initiation and installation plans for a tin can supper occupied part of the time at the last Rainbow Girls meeting when Barbara Bass and Marilyn Graves were taken into membership and Shirley Ray was installed as drill leader; Betty Nance as Patriotism and Delores Johnson as confidential observer.

Plans were made for a tin can supper next Monday evening at 6 p.m. after which warsage for the 6th War Bond drive will be made and clothing packed to send to Russian Relief. A short initiatory practice will be held and all Rainbow Girls are urged to attend.

Social Club Plans For Harvest Dance

The Nehalem Social club met at the home of Mrs. Tom Crawford last week with Mrs. Oscar George assisting as hostess. Final plans and a list for invitations were completed for the harvest dance to be given Wednesday evening, November 22nd at the Masonic Temple. All members of the club desiring to make up a Christmas package for the Columbia County Camp and Hospital committee may leave packages at the Bank building for collection by Mrs. H. G. Sandon, member of the committee.

Club Entertained At Olin Home

Mrs. F. R. Olin was hostess to the O-A bridge club last Thursday afternoon at her home. High score went to Mrs. Ben Brickel, second to Mrs. Richard Fletcher and low to Mrs. Judd Greenman.

Odd Fellows to Banquet Nov. 21

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will banquet here Tues., November 21 when the second event of this kind is to be held at the hall. More extensive plans are being made this year than last due to anticipation of a larger crowd than was present last year when the affair was held. Several state officers are expected to attend and membership jewels will be presented some of the long-time members of the lodge.

Cooking of the meal, which will feature venison, will be done by Jewett Bush. All Odd Fellows and wives and all Rebekahs and husbands, whether Odd Fellows or not, are invited.

Mt. Heart Club Donates $47.25

Mt. Heart Social club has had a busy month. At the last regular meeting it was decided that $47.25 be donated to the United War Chest fund. This amount was the proceeds from one of the dances given in October.

A special meeting of the club was held Thursday evening after lodge and it was voted that $25. be turned over to a committee appointed for the purpose of buying and filling Red Cross Xmas kits for hospitalized soldiers.

A contract with Mr. Hirsch for the painting of the inside of the I.O.O.F. hall was read and signed and work is to begin as soon as possible.

The next regular club meeting will be held Tuesday evening, December 5th at the home of Evelyn Heath.

Two new members were initiated into Mt. Heart Rebekah lodge last month. They were Sister Ethel Peasnell and Brother Harry Junkins.
