Go to Clatskanie

Mrs. Ed. Frazee and daughter, Betty Lou, and Mrs. Gene Shipman were visitors in Clatskanie Tuesday of this week.

Home from College

Miss Eileen Enos spent the past week end here with relatives. She arrived Friday evening and returned to her school, Cascade College in Portland, Sunday.

To Attend Conference

Rev. Allen H. Backer will attend the mid-winter conference in Spokane on Jan. 30 and 31, and February 1st of next week. Following the conference he, with the Gospel Gleemen, will make a short tour of the area near Spokane, singing at several Evangelical churches.

Visitors at Riverview Homes Are Noted for Week by Correspondent

RIVERVIEW — Mrs. Emma Fredrickson, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Salinka all of Clatskanie were Sunday visitors at the A. L. Bassett home while Miss Betty Hall of Glenoma, Wash. came on a surprise visit to the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schumacher of New England, N. Dak. are visiting at the home of Mrs. Schumacher's brother, J. A. Wirtz. In noting N. Dak. changes since they each had filed gov't claims in 1908 in the days when the natives shied at autos, the Schumachers relate that their son, Russell, in company with a friend is financing and constructing an airport on his mother's claim.

Mrs. Robert Moore of St. Helens spent the week end with her sister Mrs. Glen Hawkins and family.

Major and Mrs. R. D. Smith, of Cal. are visiting relatives and friends here and at The Dalles. The Major will return to his post at the Dibble General hospital at the close of his vacation.

Mary Jane Cline of Portland came up Sunday to spend the week end with her friends here.

Who's sick? Two of our young Americans, Waldron Ratkie and Bertram Wood are very much under the weather at present while John Wildy father of Mrs. Monty Dewey is a great sufferer with rheumatism. He journeyed to Wheeler Sunday where he received treatment which all hope will be beneficial.

Mrs. J. Williams accompanied Oscar Williams and wife to Gaston Saturday. She planned to spend several days there.

A neighborly welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Worley and their three children, Leroy and Venice, who moved Sunday into the nice home they recently purchased of Glen Boddell. These new neighbors come from Linnton.

Birthday Dinner Honors Two

RIVERVIEW — Our community extends sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Condit whose daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. H. Condit, passed away at a Portland hospital Sunday, and to the bereaved husband and daughter who are spending some time here.

President Bringham and wife of the Northwestern Mission Service were working and visiting in this vicinity over the week end and spent two nights at the George Bell home.

A large number of Riverviewers attended the Memorial Services held for Pfc Gerald Turner in Vernonia Sunday. The services were both beautiful and impressive.

Miss Betty Ratkie, Mrs. Polly Lynch and Mrs. Bessie Netka were Portland-Vancouver visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kaphammer of Forest Grove spent Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis. Mr. Ellis accompanied them on their return and will visit Oregon City before his return.

Miss Lorraine Mahar and her friend Joe Romaska of Portland spent Sunday at the Ralph Mahar home.

Mrs. L. A. Billings and daughter Emmalene of Portland visited several days the past week at the W. D. Steele home.

A bounteous two-fold birthday dinner was served in their home Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bean. The honor guests were Mr. Roy Brady, father of Mrs. Bean and Mr. Harry Bean, Archie's father who added another year to their ages. S. Sgt. and Mrs. Leroy Jack Bean and daughter of San Diego were exceptionally welcome guests at this gathering. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Raff and three children and Mr. and Mrs. Asslan and daughter who came with Harry Bean from Kelso, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. John Rosa and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brady and daughter Aretha of Vernonia, Mary Jane Cline of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Deane and daughter of Keasey. Visiting and repeating pioneer stories and adventures with the feasting were enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay and Mr. and Mrs. Cleone Woodruff of Portland spent Saturday night and Sunday at the Frank Mills home.

A very beautiful wedding ceremony was performed at the Trinity Baptist church in Portland when Miss Erma Koberstein became the bride of Cyril Thompson, a coastguardsman, while on furlough. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Steele and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Steele attended this wedding. The Kobersteins lived here for many years. This young couple are spending their honeymoon in British Columbia.

Sawdust...

The polio "March of Dimes" got a boost at the Cozy Confectionary Saturday night by Dwayne Lane. Dime collection boxes had been placed about town by Chairman Paul Gordon and one of the boxes was available, so Dwayne presented it to every customer in the Cozy. The box gained weight in a hurry. Herb counts was embarrassed last week, so the story goes. He had been away from home several days in search of cattle and upon returning was informed that he had been reported lost...

Stoking the furnace is all right for those who like it but Paul Gordon doesn't like it. At least that would be the idea one would get were he to tell about his efforts along that line a few days ago during the illness of J. J. Latimer, school janitor... Orvel Edwards doesn't seem to care for cold weather either for he can usually be found close to a warm fire, especially so during the past few days.
