MAN HERE AND HEREAFTER LIFE AFTER DEATH ASSURED Part 8

When Job was about to die, he said "Now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, and I SHALL NOT BE." Job 7:41. His only hope of living again, of escaping from the bonds of the grave, was the resurrection from the dead. "If a man die shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come. Thou shalt call and I will answer Thee: Thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands." Job 14:14,15. Where would he wait until the Lord should call him? He says, "If I wait, the grave is mine house." Job 17:12.

Jesus teaches the same thing, saying: "The hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation." John 5:28,29. Note that Christ speaks of the dead as being in the graves, and that from them they are to "come forth" in the resurrection day. Man's only hope of escape from the grave is the resurrection of the dead promised by the Lord Jesus Christ. "For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the Archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord," and in no other way.

The prophet Ezekiel saw in vision the resurrection of the millions of dead who are buried in the earth. The surface of the earth appeared to him as a great valley full of dry bones, which, at the Lord's word, came together, each bone to its corresponding bone. Then sinews, and flesh and skin came upon the bones, but there was no life in these remade bodies. (Ezekiel 37: 1,10.) Thereupon "breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceeding great army." Verse 10.

The promise given in connection with the vision was this: "O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves." Part 8 cont. next week. G. F. Brown
