Wood-Starzl Nuptials Read at Vancouver Parsonage August 6

RIVERVIEW — A pretty wedding took place at the Presbyterian parsonage in Vancouver Monday morning, August 6th, in which Miss Levina Starzl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wencil Starzl, became the bride of Paul Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wood of Riverview. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Paul L. Zungman.

The bride in a tailored suit of brown with white accessories and carrying a bouquet of rosebuds was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Francis Starzl, who wore a black tailored suit.

Francis Starzl, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

After a sumptuous wedding dinner in Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wood brought the bride and groom to their home here where a reception for the immediate relatives was held in the evening.

The newly-weds will spend a two-week's honeymoon in Roseburg after which they plan to locate in Vernonia.

Their many friends join in wishing this happy pair a bright unclouded future.

Eighth Birthday Event Celebrated Tuesday

RIVERVIEW—An eighth birthday anniversary was celebrated at the Worley home Tuesday when nine of her little friends gave Venice a real surprise. They were: Billie and Cora Jean Knoedler, Patty, Ruby and Margie Wells, Harriet and Carolyn Heath, Phyllis Sessman and Judy Cox. Venice received many nice gifts and games and a dainty lunch was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Clark Honored By Shower Friday

Dorothy Martin, Mary Clark and Grace Mathews were hostesses at a shower given in the honor of Ruby Clark at the home of Dorothy Martin, Friday.

Games were played and a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Clark received many lovely gifts.

Birthday Surprise Given Mrs. Melis

MIST — A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. A. R. Melis at her house last Thurs., it being her birthday the day before.

The ladies came from the village and vicinity, some bringing cakes.

The gifts were lovely and among them a large woolen throw robe and a table cloth from the Helping Circle.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the close of which a dainty lunch was served. After lunch the ladies departed for home wishing their hostess lots of good wishes.

Aged Father Dies Friday

RIVERVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Crawford entertained Sunday in honor of their son, Sgt. Middleton Crawford. A bounteous dinner was served and enjoyed by all regardless of the intense heat. Guests from a distance who attended this reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown of Port Angeles, Wn., Mrs. Murry and son of St. Helens, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Harris and son, Bobby, of Portland and Mrs. Elizabeth Brown who came from San Francisco Wed. at the close of a 10-months sojourn in Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvard Malmsten and daughter, Sydney Ann, of Vancouver were week end guests at the parental Chas. Ratkie home.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Diemert of Portland spent the week end with Mrs. John Elder.

Miss Lorraine Mahar and two friends, Margie Burndt and Joe Resnicheck, of Portland were Sun. visitors at the Ralph Mahar home.

Sincere sympathy from their friends is extended to the Monty Dewey family who lost an aged father Fri. when John Wildey passed away at the General hospital in Portland. Having been a resident but a short time, Mr. Wildey, a partial invalid, had not made many acquaintances, but all who knew him speak of his kindly disposition and truthfully say, "He was a good man."

Pfc. Walter Barnett was the guest of honor at a birthday dinner given by his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Claud E. Gibson Sun. Guests were Mrs. Clara Barnett, of St. Helens, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lange and daughter, Smiley, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams of Portland and W. Y. Barnett of Vernonia. Walter will have a lot of nice things to remember about his party when he goes to La Moure Field in Cal. on Aug. 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Knoedler and daughters started out on a chicken hunt Sunday. They motored to St. Helens and Scappoose and visited with the Clifford Nelson family at Goble. They returned with a nice bunch of ch—no, not chickens, we'll end that word with—erries.

Melvin Hart of San Diego, who is visiting his parents at Hillsboro, came over for a Sunday dinner with his aunt, Mrs. Pearl Wilkerson. Melvin specializes in well-drilling and equipping his wells with modern pumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis and daughter, Betty Marie, of Portland were week end guests at the parental John Ellis home.

Property Changes Newest Pastime

RIVERVIEW — This week we say farewell and good luck to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leik who 'took off' by car early Mon. with their two tiny tots for Mr. Leik's native state, Michigan. They have not decided on the line of work they will engage in but Mrs. Leik also being an Easterner (Minn.) they prefer to leave Oregon for the Westeners.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hallowell and daughter, Anita Mae, of Dallas accompanied by a friend, Miss Elva Horton, spent the week end at the W. D. Steele home.

Property transfers seem to be the up-to-the-minute pastime in this neck of the woods—Andrew Parker sold a 15A. tract of good pasture and tillable land to Chas. Ratkie last week. This tract joins the Ratkie acreage and will give them a much more desirable holding; on July 25th Clarence Gee sold his home and furniture to George Sander of Portland who came out Monday to take possession. By way of introduction, Mr. Sander just completed a job as hotel clerk in the city. He has two sons in the service; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shaver sold their home Sunday to Harry Kipp of west Riverview who will take over in early September. The Shavers will look for a new location at Lebanon and points south.

Another newcomer is Sam Wilson of Camp 8, who this week got nicely settled in the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Brown on Pebble Creek road. He is an employee of the Crown-Zellerbach corporation. And, by the way, this corporation has given Riverview a very patriotic look by raising a large U. S. flag atop a well-set pole at the entrance to their fire station.

A tiresome 4-day journey was climaxed Mon. eve. by Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Armstrong and children, Dorothy, Russell and Jimmie, of Los Angeles when they drew up before the Lester Heim residence where they will spend a week before resuming their travels to Fergus Falls, Minn. Mrs. Armstrong is a sister of Mrs. Heim.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burnham of Portland spent Sun. at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Merle Cline.

Improvements Noted at Riverview Home; New Residents Arrive Here

RIVERVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tisglade of Oakland, Cal. were Sat. visitors at the Otto Carlson home.

John (Doc) Normand of Portland spent the week at the home of his son, Rex Normand, and family. The Normands have just completed a fill and bridge across the swamp back of their farmstead which is a great improvement. At present they are trucking in material for a barn. Doc got in on part of the work involved and had a visit with his wife who makes her home with their son.

Seems we were partly asleep last week when our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Violette sold their home and slipped away to reside on the O-A hill. In their stead we have Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Harding who moved into their new home the end of the week. Mr. Harding has his own logging equipment and will continue with logging operations. The Hardings come from Seaside and have two children. We welcome them to Riverview and say, "May good luck follow the Violettes."

Another foursome of our young women motored to Portland Wed. eve. to see the Ice Capades. They were: Polly Lynch, Bessie Netka, Ruby Fowler and Bonnie Ratkie.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Adams and two children motored to Clatskanie Sat. eve. and spent Sun. clam digging at Seaside and fishing at the jetty at Barview.

Car Accident Causes Death of Former Mist Resident at Woodson

MIST — We were sorry to hear of the accident last week which caused the death of J. W. Baldrige at Woodson. Many years ago "Bud," as he was called, lived here near the village with his wife, who passed on several years ago. We are well acquainted with the family. A car accident caused his death. The funeral was Sun. at Clatskanie.

C. O. Hayden has gone to Glenona, Wn. to work for Don Hall. He will move his family later.

Several from the community attended Pomona grange at Natal Sat.

Max O'Black has purchased the Dave McMullen property at Natal. The McMullens are going to make their home in Bonneville.

Visits of the Past Week Mentioned

KEASEY — Mrs. Pope is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Otto Bittner, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fugate from Camp McGregor are spending the shut down at their home on Rock Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Verle Fleener and family of Beaverton were visitors at the Herb Counts home Sun.

Mrs. Verle DeVaney and son, Jimmy, have been visiting at the J. O. DeVaney home since Mon.

Mr. Lee Roy Wilson and Mrs. V. E. Cleveland spent the week end in Portland with friends.

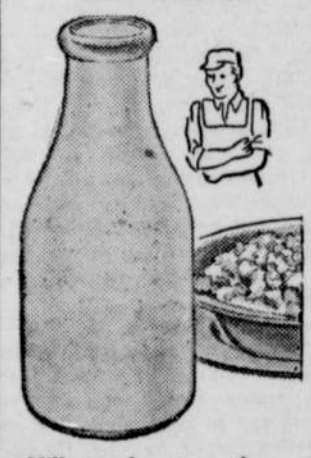

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith were callers at the Herb Counts home Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McGaughey and sons, Jimmy and Johnney, were visitors at the Chet Fugate home Sun.

When your engine gets low in spirits and needs "a shot in the arm", it could be caused by a weak and debilitated battery. AHA! That's where we come in with our re-charge service. We'll put more spunk in that battery than it ever had before and if it has gone to the happy hunting ground, where all good batteries eventually go, we will replace it with a new one full of vim, vigor and vitality.
