

Birthday Honored By Celebration

RIVEVIEW — Marion Benita Mathews of Mist spent Sun. with her grandmother, Mrs. Ida Condit while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mathews, motored to Portland to visit the Buchanans.

Mrs. James Hannah of Portland called on her friends Mr.

and Mrs. Everett Johnson one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Fauble of Tacoma were week end visitors at the Franklin Worley home where they picked up their children, Mrs. Iva Hogue, whose husband is in the service, and Alton Fauble, who had been visiting here for a week or more. The young folks had enjoyed many hours of fishing in the Nehalem.

As Mrs. W. J. Lindsley was having a birthday Mon. her children held a celebration Sun. and presented her with many beautiful gifts. Those present for the dinner were Cpl. Joe Lindsley, his wife and four children, the Misses Clarabel and Joanne Lindsley and Kenneth Lindsley. Cpl. Joe just recently arrived from Germany where he had served for five months. After a 30-day furlough he will be sent to an army camp in Kentucky. Afternoon guests at this party were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mead and daughter, Ilena, of Nehalem.

Norbert Pelster sold his home place this week to Gregory Nibbler of Hillsboro. Mr. Nibbler is a nephew of Mrs. Borgelt and is now in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walters of Cedar Mills were callers at the J. W. Lindsley home Fri.

Miss Dorothy Millis of Portland spent the week end here.

Mrs. Rex Normand and sons, John and Beryl, and Mrs. Grace Normand, who motored to Hamilton, Mont. two weeks ago on a combined business and pleasure trip, returned Sun. eve. with a trailer load of household goods.

Mrs. Charles Gill and sons of Albany and Mrs. Sonny Parker and children, Luanna and Sonja, were here several days the past week to visit Mrs. Anna Parker, who is great grandmother to the Parker children.

High Prices Entice Pickers

MIST — Mrs. Ralph George was down Mon. with a load of blackberries she picked. Many people are picking the evergreens for the cannery. They are high priced this year.

Mrs. Earl Roper drove to Rainier Fri. on business. The electricians are working on Ralph George's barn and house this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roper and Shirley Ann were Sun. dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Eastman a week ago.

Roy Hughes was a Portland visitor a few days last week. Mrs. Robt. Lindsey went to Portland the first of the week to see her sister, Mrs. Noble Dunlap, in the hospital.

Mrs. Noble Dunlap is in the hospital in Portland, having been operated on Fri. and a large tumor removed. She is getting along very nicely. She had been very poorly for quite a while. Her son, Cpl. Floyd Deeds, flew to Portland to be with his mother at the critical time. He is stationed in Virginia.

Mrs. Clara Wikstrom was in the village from Vernonia Sun.

Donald Sundland was in Newberg the last of the week to visit his wives parents, where his wife is also visiting.

Lloyd Garlock is driving the high school bus for a while until Austin Corll is ready. At present he has illness in his home.
