

High School Graduation Aid Intended for Vets

Two units toward high school graduation will be allotted all Oregon veterans returning from service, Hugh E. Rosson, director of the state department of veteran's affairs, pointed out recently in outlining a program whereby service men and women may complete their secondary educations.

A unit is the equivalent of one school year of study in one subject, and 16 units are required in Oregon for high school graduation. The awarding of two units for a veteran's basic training has been announced by the state department of education.

In addition, high schools may allow credits for training received in army or navy service schools, based upon an evaluation guide prepared by the American council on education. Here are further steps the veteran may take to secure the necessary credits for graduation:

1. Enrollment in full-time high school classes. He will be received the same as any other student, but if over 21 years of age may be subject to the rules covering payment of tuition as they apply in his particular school district.

2. High school correspondence courses. Information, and application, may be obtained by writing the general extension division, Oregon state system of higher education, Eugene. These courses are accepted by any standard high school in Oregon for credit toward graduation. The veteran is advised to consult his principal first, however, to avoid duplicating courses he may have taken before entering the service.

Because these courses are approved by the department of education, enrollment fees can be paid under provisions of the GI bill of rights. Courses offered by the extension division include all the required high school subjects in English, science, mathematics, and social studies, in addition to pre-flight aeronautics, accounting and business English, mechanical drawing, and high school Latin and Spanish.

3. A combination of correspondence and regular high school work, if his principal approves. If the veteran needs, say, five units to graduate, he can clear four of these by one year of high school, and he may also complete his fifth unit by taking a correspondence course on the side. Principals and high school teachers have been asked by State Supt. Rex Putnam to assist the veteran in his correspondence study problems.

4. Night school classes conducted in Salem and Portland.

5. Part-time attendance in regular high school, to fulfill individual graduation requirements. The veteran can get his best information on this from his high school principal, or from a veteran's organization in his home town.

Agent Suggests Christmas Sweet

Christmas would not seem natural without sweets, although they're not a health essential says Maud C. Casswell, home demonstration agent. A healthful type of sweet can be made from dried apricots and corn syrup. Soak 1/2 cup of the fruit until swollen, then dry thoroughly on both sides on a towel. Bring to a boil 1/2 cup of light corn syrup and 1/4 cup of water. Cook the apricots in the syrup until they are semi-transparent. Drain on a rack or paper towel. Dry for several days. The glossy glazed product may be used as it is, in boxes of Christmas confection, or it may be rolled in a small amount of powdered sugar.

when beaming faces tell that Christmas is very, very near, we are reminded again of the supreme value of friendship. He who has no friends, though he may have amassed a fortune, cannot be happy.

We have many friends in this area—friends from many years back as well as friends who have become friends during this past year. These friendships are a great source of pride and happiness to us.

To all these friends we wish a very Merry Christmas Season.

To each of us the word Christmas summons many happy memories. To some it recalls a ride over the frozen countryside to grandma's, sleigh-bells tinkling all the while. To others it recalls happy reunions in mirth-filled living rooms, gay banquets and glowing Christmas trees. But to all it recalls days of charm and endearment, the happiest days of our lives.

May you know this happiness in all its fullness once again, dear friends, this Christmas season of 1945.

A Merry Christmas

★ The wise men saw it over the hills of old Judea . . . it glows in the Christmas sky tonight, though clouds may obscure the heavens. It is a beacon of hope in a world in which there is ever so much room for improvement. Its spirit travels around this earth, encouraging, sustaining, and beautifying.

Our Christmas greeting to every man, woman and child in this community . . . a greeting as warm and hearty—we hope—as if it were made to each in person with a friendly smile and a shake of the hand.
