Having their tickets purchased for a journey to Portland to spend Christmas with Mrs. Wells' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beck, they found two of the children, Lester and Ruby, running temperatures and Margie not too well. No journey, says Mama Wells. Here's hoping Santa was better to them than the flu bugs.

Mrs. Mary Serren, Portland, arrived Sun. eve. to spend Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Aubrey Sharp, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Abney of Wishram, Wn. spent Sun. night at the home of Mrs. Abney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Welter. Mr. Abney was discharged from service recently and resumed his work as R.R. engineer. He was to be on duty Christmas morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Reynolds and daughter, Sweet Home, came Sat. to spend several days with relatives here and in Vernonia. Our sick list this week: Mrs. Jewel Lloyd, Lawrence Robbins, the entire Callister family and Arthur Armstrong.
