Legion Auxiliary Plans For Coming Events

At the regular meeting of the American Legion auxiliary last evening tentative arrangements were made for the attempt to hold an Easter hunt for all children 12 and under. Assistance of people other than auxiliary members is asked to obtain regular eggs, as it is impossible to secure candy eggs.

The auxiliary voted to sponsor a ward party for the Portland Veterans hospital and also renewed the Vernonia Eagle subscription for the hospital.

The community service committee of the auxiliary is in favor of sponsoring the senior banquet again this year.

The Legion's 27th anniversary was celebrated Monday evening. The center of attraction was a beautifully decorated cake presented to the Legion from the auxiliary. Entertainment consisted of card playing and dancing.

P.E.O. Sisterhood Holds Annual Election

The Vernonia Chapter of P.E.O. Sisterhood held its annual election Tuesday evening, March 5th at the home of Mrs. Ray Mills. After the election, Mrs. Judd Greenman, junior past president, installed the following members to office:

Mrs. Richard Fletcher, president; Mrs. J. W. Nichols, vice president; Mrs. Paul Gordon, recording secretary; Mrs. Leslie Skuzie, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ray Mills, treasurer; Mrs. Cleo Caton, chaplain and Mrs. Ben Brickel, guard.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Greenman with Mrs. Skuzie conducting the program and as a guest, Mrs. Oveta Barnes, state organizer for P.E.O. from Portland will be present.

Two Families Are Welcomed

RIVERVIEW—This week we welcome two families of new neighbors—Mrs. Marie Louder with her daughter and brother, Wilfred Koehler are now in the new home they purchased of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Beacom on 8th St. and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schwab and children, Hildegard and Robert, who came Friday from Vancouver, Wash., to occupy the home they bought two weeks ago of Leslie Heim on 3rd St. The Schwabs came from Chicago at the beginning of the war and Otto was employed as an electrician in the shipyards in Vancouver until recently. He hopes to find similar work here.

Mrs. Heim and daughter, Darlene, left Wednesday for Vancouver where they will stop at the home of Mrs. Heim's sister in order to be near Mr. Heim who underwent an operation on his injured leg Wednesday at the Veterans' hospital in Portland and will be hospitalized for some time. We regret the loss of this fine family.

Mr. and Mrs. Verle Steele of Portland spent Sunday at the Oscar Steele home.

Miss Margaret Lockwood of Elloxi, Miss, came Saturday to spend a week at the home of Mrs. Artie Buckner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elder drove to Garibaldi Saturday for a week end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heath. They were accompanied as far as Bayview by Miss Marcella Parker who spent the time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parker. She found her sister, Mary Ann, quite ill, but improving.

Kenneth Britton a returnee of World War II, of Sweet Home, spent the week end with the Bassett families here.

Parker Property Sold for Home

RIVERVIEW—Andrew Parker sold a 4-acre plot of land just north of his residence to Mr. Shippley last week. We understand the new owner plans to build a new home and remove the barn that stands on this property. Mr. Shippley has a small acreage on Rock creek.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobs and daughters and Elmer Buelow of Clatskanie were Sunday dinner guests at the Riley Hall home.

Mrs. Laurel Smith and children, Wesley and Loretta, and her brother, Elmer Crume, spent Monday at the Roediger and Anderson homes here.

Tommy Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Hall, recently of Calcutta, Ind'a, sent a telegram to his parents Monday saying, "I will be home Friday or Saturday."

Grange Auction To Be Benefit

MIST—Natal Grange is sponsoring an auction sale at the hall Sunday afternoon for Red Cross Benefit. Lunch will be served at noon. Donations of food for the lunch will be welcomed. The sale will consist of farm produce, fancy work, cakes, etc. We hope to have a large crowd.

Sunday guests at the Wm. Bridger's home were, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mills and Loren, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gordon from Vernonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Chase and family from Rainier.

I. E. Knowles found his valuable calf which disappeared early last week from his pasture. He had just purchased the calf, of high pedigree, turned it loose after a few days in the barn and found it with Mr. Crawford's cattle.

Roy Hughes was in Klamath Falls last week.

The Tavern here is undergoing some remodeling at this time. The Claud Kysers were in Clatskanie Saturday.

A few ladies from here attended the W.M.S. at Mrs. A.

R. Mill's home on the Fishhawk last Wednesday.

Sunday visitors at the Earl Roper home were Mr. and Mrs. John Howery and his son and wife from Seaside.

Mrs. Austin Dowling and son, Bernard, were in Clatskanie Saturday afternoon.

EAT DINNER IN VERNONIA

Starting Sunday, the 17th of March, I will serve chicken dinners and steak dinners with all the trimmings. I will serve a full three-course dinner any week day evening from five o'clock and on Sunday from four o'clock. You can make reservations any time before ten o'clock any day to be served that evening, giving the number to be served and the time. I can also serve parties of six to eight couples.

These dinners will be home cooked and served in my home at 451 South Rose Ave.

Vernonia needs an eating place of this type and I will sincerely appreciate your patronage. This will be known as Lee's Chicken and Steak Dinners.
