Nine Ways to Save Food Outlined by Chairman

Housewives of Columbia county today were given nine ways in which they can help to conserve food to save starving Europeans by Wallace McCrae, county emergency food chairman.

In suggesting concrete ways in which each household may assist in accumulating the huge food supplies needed int he current desperate famine emergency, Mr. McCrae made it clear that the over-all needs of the war-torn world for food are so great there is no limit to the American food that can be used to save human life. Main emphasis falls on the conservation of wheat and fats and oils, Mr. McCrae indicated These basic commodities are the most essential to a healthful minimum diet and represent the absolute minimum needs.

Columbia county's share has been set by the county food for famine relief committee at 360 tons of wheat and 9 tons of food fats and oils saved by July 11. The following are the recommendations to housewives:

1: Cut down on the wastage of bread in every way possible. It is estimated that 5 percent or one slice out of every loaf of bread baked every day goes in the garbage can.

2. Reduce the amount of bread used at each meal through substitutes such as potatoes and oat cereals. Use fruit instead of cakes and pastries for desserts.

3. By the use of alternate foods, use less wheat cereals for breakfast.

4. Save cooking oils by making more extensive use of meat drippings for cooking and seasoning foods.

5. Hold down the number of fried foods served.

6. Save and re-use fats and oils.

7. Save bacon grease for cooking and render excess fats on meats.

8. All fats that cannot be reused should be salvaged and turned in to the butcher.

9. Take it easy on oils in salad dressings.

"FROZEN" COFFEE

Frozen coffee cubes may make coffee brewing as simple as boiling water. Dropped into a pint of boiling water, one cube of the frozen, concentrated extract will make steaming, sedimentless coffee in an instant.

RECONVERSION

An incendiary fuel, which used to be used in flame throwers and aerial bombs, has been converted to a germicidal liquid soap for bathroom and kitchen.

THE SMART FAMILY

THESE YOUNG FOLKS certainly have a direct way of asking questions. Take Jane Smart, for instance. The other day she said, "Doctor, a group of us were discussing alcoholism. Some folks are claiming long and loud that it is a disease." "Right, Jane," says I. "Now with all other diseases, research trys to discover the source, and destroy that source, doesn't it?" "Right, Jane, again!" "And yet the source of alcoholism is known, and rather than destroy it—it seems to us girls that they are trying to alibi or camouflage the source—if it is a disease why not treat the source like other diseases?"
