Double Birthdays Are Cause for Celebration At Heath Home Sat.

RIVERVIEW—A double birthday celebration at the Wm. Heath home Saturday brought joy to many little girls. The party honored Harriet and Caroline Heath who have late April birthdays, and even the weatherman did all he could to make their party a success. The little girls chose their own guests and the list included Patty, Margie and Ruby Wells, Nadine Tunnell, Sharon Stone, Dorothy Backer, Mikey White, Penny Plummer, Mary Millis, Darla Walker, Billie Knoedler, Dorothy and Sharon Guin, Bonnie Sub Holcomb, Venice Worley, Alice Snook, Marlene Pugh and Darlene Pugh. The latter four were unable to be at the party. Harriet and Caroline received many pretty gifts and each child received a favor at the close of the delicious lunch served by Mrs. Heath.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Bassett in company with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schmidt, of the Forest Grove road, attended Sunday church services in Hillsboro where two grandchildren of the Schmidts, Norma Lee Carter and Jimmy Doan Carter were members of a class of First Communicants. Later they feasted at the Carter home and spent the afternoon there.

Joe Peachey visited his sister, Mrs. John Casey in Tacoma, Wash., Thursday and Friday. He returned to his job in Swiss Home Sunday.

Three of our school children were home Monday due to illness. They were Kenneth Lindsley, Josephine Normand who had to spend her thirteenth birthday in bed and Pat Lloyd who has been ill for three weeks. All are improving.

Sunday dinner guests at the Lauder-Kocher home here were Mrs. Lauder's uncle, A. W. Kocher, and his granddaughter, Barbara, of Portland, Fred Kocher, brother of A. W. and Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew and daughters, Betty Lou, Emma Louise, Elizabeth Ann and Georgene of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Levers of Seaside spent Sunday visiting at the J. W. Wilcox home. Mr. Levers was recently discharged from the army.
