Painting Projects Fall from Horse Underway Now Causes Injury

(Omitted last week)

RIVERVIEW—Mrs. Sam Smith of Sweet Home was here Thursday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lindsley. She reports that her five-year-old son, Gary, whose leg was broken when he was struck by a car in early April, is doing very poorly and the doctors think that his limb will have to be rebroken and some bone grafting done on it.

At least three painting projects are well underway here at present. The one nearest completion is the new through-way drive garage at the Andrew Parker home. It has been given a couple of coats of tan with white trim which with the tile red roof gives the structure quite a gaudy appearance. King's Grocery and Market is undergoing a renovation and a glossy white enamel makes the interior very bright and cheerful and the George Bell house on 6th street is being changed from yellow to white.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McGee drove to their former home near Scholls Sunday to return their daughter, Mrs. H. Fisher and her children, Johnnie and Katherine, who had spent the week here, to their home also in the Schools neighborhood. Several bouquets of beautiful roses from their old home decorated the Inn the first of the week.

John Wilcoxon, S/c of Port Docks, near Astoria, came over Saturday evening for a week end visit with the home folks. Sunday afternoon his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilcoxon, his brother, Billie, and sister, Bonnie, drove to Astoria to return him to his post of duty. On the return trip the Wilcoxens stopped at Jewell for a visit with Mr. Wilcoxon's mother, Mrs. K. M. Wilcoxon, and found two of his sisters there. They were Mrs. Ralph Hill of Independence and Mrs. Jane Abzroms of Clatskanie.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolf of Vernonia have leased the Klink property at the end of 10th street and are getting located there. Mr. and Mrs. Monty Dewey and son and John Wolf called on them Monday evening.

Bob Beck left Wednesday for Seattle from which port he flew to Anchorage, Alaska, to take up his old job with the Morrison-Knudsen Construction company. Mrs. Beck and their infant son will go to Anchorage as soon as the baby, Bobby Joe, is able to make the journey.

Earl Kelly and Mr. Yoler of Portland visited Earl's good friend, George Davis, Saturday afternoon and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Herd.

Due to cancellation of the Yamhill ball game Sunday, the R. C. Kemper family of Forest Grove, were able to come over for a visit RIVERVIEW — Saturday dinner guests at the C. N. Van De Bogart home were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Post of Monroe and Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Cantwell and daughter, Judy, of Vernonia.

Miss Martha Wells and her friend Miss Hulda White of Birkenfeld are now employed at the Coffee Memorial hospital in Portland. They will stay at the home of Martha's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beck during their employment.

Wednesday night after work, Franklin Worley took his family to Springfield for the national holiday and a long week end. While away they visited Mrs. Worley's mother, Mrs. Almeda Steinmetz and her sons, Roderick and Benny and Mita, Worley's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Casto of Springfield. Mr. Worley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Worley of Eugene and his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Jones. The Worleys always enjoy a visit in and around Springfield as they lived there for many years.

Miss Claribel Lindsley is still confined to her home with a sprained ankle and badly lacerated leg, results of having her saddle pony fall when he struck loose gravel at full speed on Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Clark attended the Rodeo at Hillsboro Sunday. They report a lively entertainment.

The C. Bruce home is being treated to a coat of delicate grey paint this week.

Illness Requires Call For Physician; Station Change Is Expected

RIVERVIEW — Mrs. Rex Normand is on the sick list having taken ill suddenly Sunday. A physician was called Sunday evening.

Dale Layman, brother of Mrs. Ralph McKee, spent the week end with her and her family. Dale expects a change of location soon as they are closing the Astoria medical school where he has been stationed.

Lawrence Thompson and Kenneth Lindsley drove to Roy Monday taking Lloyd Worley to his new job on the Bob Johnson ranch near there.

Mrs. J. W. Lindsley, Mrs. Floyd Watson, Mrs. W. J. Lindsley and daughter, Joanne, went to Portland last Monday where Miss Joanne boarded a bus for Sweet Home where she will assist her sister, Mrs. Sam Smith, in the care of her home while her son, Gary, is in the hospital.

at the parental J. A. Wirtz home. R. C. is one of the boys in the Verbot team whose manager is his brother, Bill.
