Attending the couple were Mr.

Mrs. Mabel Graves Entertains Club

The Friendship club met with Mrs. Mabel Graves June 6 with the following members present: Ruby Biggs, Blanche Mellis, Pearl Wilkerson, Mabel Mahar and Bertie Bassett. Present as a guest for the event was Beverly Bassett. The club will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Marvel Chalmers July 18.

F.O.E. Officers Named for Year

Officers to act for the coming year for the Vernonia Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles were named a short time ago with Harold Carrick to act as worthy president of the group.

Other members named to official positions are: Wallace Noakes, vice-president; Harry O'Brien, chaplain; Forrest Blount, Jr., conductor; George Armstrong, secretary; Warren Stevenson, treasurer; James Combs, inside guard; Ted Savage, outside guard, and Leonard Malmsten, Oscar Enstrom and Art Kirk, trustees and Mrs. Frank Lines, Sr.

The ceremony was read in the presence of a few relatives and close friends and was followed by refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Schmick-Billings Rites Read Thursday Evening

A wedding of interest to many residents of this locality was that of Miss Emmalene Billings, who on the evening of June 6 in a beautifully-solemnized candle light service at Wesleyan Methodist church of Portland, became the bride of Wayne R. Schmick. Rev. K. Mead officiated. Janet Walker and Mrs. Theodore Rutledge, cousins of the bride, sang.

Mr. Billings gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a dress of cream satin and delicate white net with a finger tip veil and carried a bouquet of calla lilies. Mrs. Melvin Newby (Alice Billings) acted as matron of honor and Geraldine Loyland and Patricia Berquist were bridesmaids. They wore frocks of pastel shades and carried nosegays of spring flowers.

Marvin Logan was best man and ushers were Melvin Newby, Allan Billings, Harvey Schmick and Henry Bahr.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. The L. A. Billings family resided here for many years.

Thompson-Thomas Rites Read at Vancouver

Clara Thomas and James L. R. Thompson were married at Vancouver May 25. The couple was attended by his mother, Mrs. Mildred Thompson and brother, Robert Thompson.

The service was performed at the Vancouver Bridal Chapel with Carmen Sykes and Eleanor Thompson also in attendance.

Auxiliary Members Enjoy Social Evening

The members of the American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion hall last evening for a social gathering.

The center of attraction was the little table prettily decorated in pink and blue with a stork pre-liding on top. Mrs. Ray Robertson was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served after a social evening of games and visiting.

Mrs. Ruth Wright Honored at Shower

Mrs. Ruth Wright was the guest of honor at a stork shower given at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. M. DeHart at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, June 11. Mrs. M. L. Savage and Mrs. DeHart were hostesses for the 25 guests present.

The opening of gifts and the winning of two prizes for games highlighted the evening.

Programs for the evening were uniquely prepared in the form of a bootee by the hostesses.

Miss Kent Honored At Bridal Shower

After the regular meeting of Nehalem Chapter, O.E.S., Wednesday evening, a delightful social hour was spent honoring Miss Erma Kent with a bridal shower. Delicious refreshments were served from beautifully decorated tables. A miniature bride and groom, pink candelabras with white tapers, white rosebuds and pinks, bride and groom place cards and many gayly wrapped gifts gave the tables a very festive air.

The refreshment committee was, Mrs. Harry Sandon, Mrs. Emil Messing, and Mrs. Alvah Swanson.

Christian Church Is Scene of Wedding

Miss Shirley Ann Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brady, became the bride of Clair Sunnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sunnell, at a ceremony read by Rev. Ernest P. Baker at the Christian church Sunday, June 9. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin dress with net and finger tip veil and carried a bouquet of gardenias, white roses and sweet peas with white satin streamers.

Miss Maxine Brady, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue pastel dress and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and pink peonies. Virginia Mills lit the candles.

The best man was James Burnett. Joyce Erickson, a cousin of the groom, played the wedding march and the ushers were Jack and Ralph McDonald.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the wedding.
