

RIDGEFIELD IS WINNER SUNDAY

Vernonia town team's first home game ended last Sunday afternoon with disastrous results—for Vernonia. The last out in the ninth left the locals with the small end of a 11 to 1 score and the second loss of the season.

The game got off to a bad start a little ahead of the scheduled 2:30 time due to rain. A short time after starting, rain stopped playing temporarily and threatened the remaining innings.

All in all, the whole thing was unsatisfactory because Ridgefield, which wasn't expected to be tough competition, started off with four runs in the first inning. After that they added another in the fifth, two more in the eighth and four in their final time at bat.

The best inning for Vernonia was the first when one run was scored. Ridgefield connected for 17 hits and Vernonia for eight.

Services Attended Strawberries At McMinnville Nearly Ripe

RIVERVIEW—Aside from the immediate mourners, Riverviewers who attended the graveside services held for George Davis at McMinnville Thursday afternoon were Mrs. T. C. Biggs, Mrs. J. A. Wirtz, Clifford Fowler, Oscar Rand and J. A. Wirtz. The latter three acted as pall bearers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Steele and Beverly Bassett Turner motored to Portland June 6 to attend the wedding of Emmalene Billings and Wayne R. Schmick. Mr. and Mrs. Jepson of Birkenfeld also attended.

Mrs. J. A. Wirtz returned Tuesday noon from Forest Grove where she had been assisting with the management of the R. C. Kemper home while her granddaughter, Patricia Marie Kemper, underwent a tonsilectomy at the General hospital Saturday morning.

Mrs. George Bell and daughters, who were vacationing in Idaho the past weeks, returned Saturday. They visited Mrs. Bell's sister, Mrs. Don Potter at Chester, Idaho, and toured the Yellowstone National park.

Mrs. Don Kissel of Timber and Mr. Alice Davs were callers at the Davis home here Tuesday.

Tommy Malmsten returned Tuesday from Portland, where he had spent a week with his grandmother, Mrs. S. V. Malmsten.

MIST—Melvin DeRock is here on leave from the navy. He expects to be released soon, having just returned from Guam. He's visiting his aunt, Mrs. Wm. Bridgers.

Mrs. L. E. Knowles' daughter, Mrs. Agatha Willis, of Seattle, is visiting at the Kwonlet's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sundland and Sharon were up from Seaside and stayed Thursday night with his folks, the Chas. Sundlands.

The strawberries are nearly ripe on the late Wm. Rose place. Austin Corll has charge of the crop.

A family by the name of Pierce has moved into the little house recently vacated by the Brown family.

Mrs. Earl Roper's cousin has been a guest of the Roper family last week. She flew up from California.

Mrs. Austin Dowling and son, Bernard, spent half a week at Tacoma, Everett and Monroe visiting relatives.

Sunday guests at the John Libel home were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith of The Dalles, May Fouts from Portland and Mrs. Ed Lindberg of Scappoose. They had all attended Pioneers day at Birkenfeld.
