COUNTRY CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY TO START NEXT SUNDAY

Match arrangements which will eventually result in the naming of the champion golfer for the Vernonia Country Club are scheduled to start next Sunday, July 21. A player bracket was drawn up Tuesday night by the tournament committee, Cal Davis, Kent Bauersfeldt and John Roediger, to outline the playing procedure for the next several weeks.

Every match will be 18 holes of play and the final matches will be 36 holes. Losers in the championship flight will drop down to the first flight and losers in the second flight will drop to the third flight.

SUN. GAME LOST IN 10TH INNING

Another 10th inning loss, the fifth this season, marked last Sunday's Vernonia-Scappoose bat crossing. Losses in the extra inning are apparently a jinx for Vernonia because the locals have yet to win one of the "overtime" tries.

In fact, the excessive number of times this unusual and unwelcome procedure has happened to Vernonia is one for Ripley, so the team and fans believe. Threats of giving the whole thing up as a bad job are being heard if Camas wins in a tenth-inning game when that nine comes here next Sunday.

The score read 4-4 in the eighth when Vernonia added two runs to the score and Scappoose tallied one.
