Dorothy Millis, Carl Wilson Wed in Portland

RIVERVIEW—In an afternoon ceremony, Sunday, Sept. 8, in the First Christian church at Portland, in a setting of lighted candles, palms and cream gladioli, Miss Dorothy Millis, daughter of Mrs. Blanche Millis of Vernonia, became the bride of Carl Wilson of Portland, with Dr. Richard R. Morgan officiating.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Tom C. Bell of Eugene, the bride wore a gown of white satin made with a train with finger tip veil of tulle and net. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis with an orchid center.

"Oh, Promise Me" and "I Love You truly" were sung by Miss Louise Erickson. The maid of honor, Miss Janie Ulmer of Boise, Idaho, cousin of the bride, wore a yellow gown and carried a bouquet of lavender gladioli with matching flower for her hair. Miss Virginia Millis was bridesmaid for her sister, wearing a pink net gown with bouquet of salmon gladioli with matching flower piece for her hair. Miss Mary Millis, sister of the bride, was flower girl, wearing a gown of blue carrying a nosegay of flowers. Best man was Mr. Carl Holm, and Kenneth Haukom and Murrel Rice acted as ushers.

A reception was held following the wedding at the Caroline Kamm recreation room, at which Mrs. Linn Cutlar served coffee, Miss Ava Covert presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Tom Bell and Mrs. Blanch Millis cut the cake.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be at home at Yakima, Washington.

Birthday Party Well Attended

RIVERVIEW—A well attended birthday party was staged Sunday for Mrs. W. J. Lindsley at her home here. The arrival of car after car of uninvited relatives aroused Mrs. Lindsley to the fact that another birthday anniversary had arrived and before she realized what was going on, a bounteous pot-luck dinner was spread by her guests and side tables filled with gifts. Those in attendance were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead with their daughter, from Nehalem, her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Walters and two children of Cedar Mills, two sisters, Mrs. Ray Dorland of Hillsboro, and Mrs. Dick Sanford of North Plains, Miss Lois Mead of Portland and her sons, Joe and Vernon, of Vernonia with their families. Many good wishes and happy returns were tendered Mrs. Lindsley as her guests arrived and departed.

Nellie Smith, Bernard Lamping Married Sun.

Miss Nellis Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Morristown, Minnesota, and Bernard Lamping, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lamping, were married at the home of his parents last Sunday afternoon. The ceremony was read by Rev. Allan H. Backer before relatives of the couple and close friends.

The bride was attired in an asqua afternoon dress and carried a bouquet of gladioli and a white Bible. Miss Cleo Lamping, sister of the groom, was her only attendant. Lois Malmsten played a solo and Miss Sally Kaspar sang.

Clyde Lamping, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Juanita Timmons where the couple received many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamping left Tuesday on a wedding trip that will take them to Minnesota and return. They plan to make their home here for the present.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, were present for the event, as was her brother, Cpl. Frank A. Smith, now stationed at Ft. Bliss, Texas.
