

Trouble Doubles At Ernest Home

RIVERVIEW—"Trouble comes double" must have been the thought in the Carl Ernest home in recent days. On August 30th their son James, a World War II vet, while wedging wood had a steel sliver of the wedge pierce his eyeball and a few days later their son, Tom, a recent returnee, also had a woodsman's accident when he nearly severed the end of a finger. James is in the Coffey Memorial hospital where everything possible is being done to save his eye while Tom was treated by a local physician.

Finding no one home at the end of their journey out from Portland to visit Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Sharp spent Sunday of last week at the George Clark home in W. Riverview. The Aubrey Sharps were spending the day at Seaside.

Mr. Olin Robbins returned Thursday from a month's visit to Seattle and Portland. In Seattle she had visited with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Jones and her son, Lawrence, and in Portland she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. A. Dalrymple.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills entertained at a Sunday evening tea Mr. and Mrs. Cleone Woodruff and son, Ronnie, of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodruff of Vernonia.

Mrs. Earl King enjoyed a three day visit this week with her brother, Robert Dial, his wife and daughter, Roberta, who came over from Moses Lake, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Powell were two of the 20,000 in attendance at the Salem State Fair Sunday.

Ex-residents See Friends

RIVERVIEW—Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Owens drove to Bandon Thursday to spend the week-end with friends and to bring more of their belongings to their new home on First street.

Mrs. Nettie Adams and son, Thurman, of St. Helens drove over Sunday afternoon for a visit with their old neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Hall. The Adams' were former residents having erected the L. L. Wells residence some fifteen years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Huntley and children joined Nate Huntley of Carlton and George, Tom and Jim Williamson of Hillsboro at Sunset Sunday and all journeyed to Nehalem to visit the Waer family who are putting up an auto court. A boatribe to Wheeler was enjoyed by all but fishing was poor.

Portland goes for the week were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Sharp and daughter, Willistine, who spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the R. E. Griffin home, Glen Hawkins was there Monday, the Claude Gibson family on Saturday, Mrs. J. W. Nichols on Friday and Lorraine Mahar spent a long week end in the city.

Mrs. Wesley Pace was guest of honor at an afternoon party arranged by Mrs. Earnest Steen and Mrs. Oscar W. Steele held at Mrs. Steele's home September 7. Embroidery and conversation were the main diversions of the group but just before refreshments were served a clothesline bearing many pink and blue gifts was brought in and presented to Mrs. Pace.

Couple Back to Riverview Home

RIVERVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schmidlin, Sr., had a gladsome surprise Labor day when their daughter, Mrs. Oscar Sorlee arrived from Portland accompanied by her husband who had been discharged at Ft. Lewis a few days before. Oscar spent 25 months in the service, 20 of which were spent overseas. Mrs. Sorlee completed her work at Lipman-Wolfs last week and the couple will be at the Schmidlin home for a time.

Pvt. Clovis Coble, who is stationed at Ft. Lewis, visited over the week-end with his aunt, Mrs. Lowell Thornbrugh and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Davis and grandson, Allen Davis of Vancouver, Washington, spent the week-end at the Hillyer home here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bell spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. George Wood and family at Camp 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Obie Atchison and children of Portland who spent the week at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. L. Lloyd moved Monday to their new home in Scappoose.

Lloyd Worley arrived home Sunday from the George Johnson farm near Cornelius where he had spent the summer wiseing up on agricultural ideas. He entered the V.H.S. Monday morning.

Miss Dorothy Huntley spent Sunday at the Banks rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobs and daughter, Joanne, of Clatskanie were guests Sunday at the Riley Hall home. They report that their daughter, Viola, has returned to her job having nearly recovered from burns sustained a few weeks ago.
