

New Families Are Welcomed

RIVERVIEW—Again we find it necessary to welcome three new families to Riverview. They are Mr. and Mrs. W. N. King who moved last week into a neat cabin on the Lee White property. By way of introduction Mrs. King reports that she formerly lived near Big Eddy, was a Wac for 18 months during World War II and while stationed at New York met Mr. King of the A.A.F. Result—a wedding and a long search for a home; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen who purchased the Leo Violette place on Sixth street, recently vacated by the Carl family, and are busy re-decorating it. They have two sons, Lee and Robert, and have been residing on 2nd avenue, Vernonia. They plan to move here this week, and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Pederson who are moving in with Mr. Fragell. The Pedersons were formerly of Langdon, North Dakota, and came over from Birkenfeld so that Mr. Pederson could be nearer his job at the O-A mill. They have one son, Kenneth, a second grader. Welcome all.

Mrs. Augusta Swapp and Mrs. Elizabeth O'Brien of Portland spent Wednesday and Thursday with Mrs. Elizabeth Brown. The two Elizabeths were schoolmates in bygone days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Steele were pleasantly surprised Sunday morning when Mr. and Mrs. Nick Farnstrom and daughter, Joyce, arrived from Vancouver, Washington, in time for breakfast. The rest of the day was spent visiting with them and the Oscar Steeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wood and son, Bertram, spent Sunday in Vancouver, Washington at the home of their son, Paul.

George Bell transacted business in St. Helens Monday.

Carnet Falconbury of the Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Falconbury, came Thursday to spend a ten-day leave here. On Sunday he accompanied his parents, his sister, Juanita, and uncle, Johnnie Strunk on an outing to Mt. Hood and around the loop to Government Camp. Carnet likes his marine job and will return to San Diego at the expiration of his leave. He expects to see China before he comes to Riverview again.

Vacation days were over when Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Crawford drove into their driveway Mon. afternoon, tanned, dusty and tired after their drive home from Vancouver, B. C., where they had visited Mr. Crawford's son, Wiloughby, who was ill. They spent some time with Mrs. Crawford's brother, Tom Brown, at Port Angeles, Washington. Mr. Brown has a motor boat and they made successful fishing trips every day and dined on fish four times a day.
