Wedding Rites Are Performed Saturday

At a ceremony at the Nels Hogberg home Saturday, September 14, Elizabeth Victoria George of Portland and Olof Olson of Camp McGregor were married by Rev. Allan H. Backer. The rites were read at 6 p.m.

Mrs. Olson wore an aqua dress and carried a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hogberg were the only attendants for the couple.

A smorgasbord was served after the ceremony to a small group of close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Olson expect to make their home here.

Juanita Greene, Ernest Nance Married at Dallas

Juanita Greene became the bride of Ernest Nance at an afternoon ceremony September 8 in the Dallas Methodist church. Rev. Clark Enz officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cason and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nance of Louisville, Mississippi.

Mrs. Joe Roberson, sister of the bride was the only attendant and Mr. Roberson acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Nance will make their home in Vernonia.

Vancouver Wedding Unites Couple

On August 31 at 5 p.m. Miss Lotus West, sister of Mrs. E. L. Merritt, became the bride of Andy Killian, son of Mrs. Minnie Killian, at a ceremony at Vancouver, Washington.

The bride wore the traditional white with veil and carried a bouquet of pale pink roses. The couple was attended by Phil Murphy and Mrs. Milan Hunt, sister of the groom. Close friends and relatives were present for the event.

A bridal shower was another event for the couple and was held September 13 at the E. L. Merritt home with Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. Hunt as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Killian are living here now where he has employment at the O-A mill.

Round-Up, Ball Game, Attracts

RIVERVIEW—A lively party of eight including Howard Smith of St. Helens, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Carlson of Tophill, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bond, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell and Polly Lynch attended the Pendleton round-up over the week end. 23,000 tickets were sold Sunday and many that desired tickets were turned away for lack of accommodations. The Sunday night pageant was beautiful. The octogroup stopped at Celilo Falls to chat with the Indians and purchased some fine canning salmon.

Riverviewers who attended the opening football game of the season at our county seat Sunday were Howard Rundell, Melvin Powell and Bob King. The battling teams were St. Helens and Hill Military of Portland.

Tom Ernest spent the week end in Portland and accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ernest, on their return from Portland Sunday when they drove in to see their son, James, at the Coffey Memorial hospital. The doctors hold out scant hope that James' eye can be saved and he was transferred Monday to the Veterans hospital, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fraser of Portland came over Sunday for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Wyckoff and family. The Frasers were accompanied by their grandson, Ronnie Vorhies, and he and Mrs. Fraser will be house guests at the Wyckoff home for a week.

Sunday visitors at the Merle Cline home were her mother, Mrs. Mabel Burnham, and two sisters, Mrs. Fred Gravon and Mrs. Paul Meyer and Mr. Meyer.

Mrs. Joe Peachey spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. B. J. Brown, at Ridgefield, Washington, while Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Shepherd of Longview, Washington, spent the week end at the Peachey home here.

10 Members of W.M.S. Entertained Wednesday Afternoon Last Week

MIST—Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Libel were Portland business visitors Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Houry spent the week end in Seaside.

Mrs. Fred Siegenthaler was a Portland visitor a few days last week. Mrs. Kallasee was also up from the Rose City.

Mrs. Austin Dowling entertained the W.M.S. Post Wednesday afternoon. There were 10 members and one guest present. Mrs. Minnie Clark, who is staying at the home of her brother, A. R. Melis, and wife, was the visitor. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Knowles because Mrs. Siegenthaler will be unable to entertain at that time.

The John Libels spent Sunday at Seaside with her sister, Mrs. E. L. McCauley.

Portland Wedding Is Attended

RIVERVIEW — Mrs. Virgil Powell accompanied Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Corrigan and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Vernonia to Portland Saturday where they attended the marriage of Molly Butler and Leon Thorne at 11 o'clock at St. Patrick's church. Later in the day they attended a reception held for the bride and groom at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mickley. The young couple then boarded a plane for Seattle where they will spend a short honeymoon before returning to Portland where both are employed.

Friday dinner guests at the Bud Rose home were Mr. and Mrs. Mert Jenkins and children of Portland.

Mrs. Sam Smith and son, Gary, of Sweet Home spent Sunday at the W. J. Lindsley home and will spend the week visiting relatives and friends in this locality.

Alberta Brendle of Tucson, Arizona, was a welcome visitor at the home of her friend, Mrs. Virgil Powell, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carl, Mrs. George Carl, Sr., and family drove to Birkenfeld Sunday to see George's grandmother, Mrs. Geo. Carl, Sr., who is in her 93rd year and to let her see her newest granddaughter, little Virginia Carl.

Mrs. D. R. Fowler of St. Helens came Sunday for a visit with her sons, Clarence and Clifford, and their families.

HOW TO KEEP YOUR FENCES STRONG AND HEALTHY

Here's a potent preservative that fights the causes of wood decay. It lengthens the service of your grape stakes, fence posts, mud sills, underpinning, hop poles, and any wood you put in contact with damp earth. Standard Wood Preservative contains 90% active ingredients—selected for their permanency. Apply it the same as ordinary creosote—and keep your wooden structures from toppling before their time.

A Lesson in FOOD SAVING$

The lesson we want to point out is this: When only the choice food items are purchased, those foods provide complete satisfaction and a consequent saving in expenditure as compared with foods that are not as satisfactory. Lower quality results in greater waste. The moral: SHOP AT GIROD'S.
