

TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Willard were in Seattle for a week previous to the time their daughter, Joy, sailed for Tokyo, Japan, where she has a civil service position. She started the voyage September 24.

Mrs. Dave Marshall was taken to Providence hospital in Portland last Sunday where she underwent a major operation Monday. She has been ill for several months at her home.

Mrs. Harry Stone came here recently from Tillamook to visit friends and relatives. She has been living with her daughter, Mrs. Lee Johnson, and family at Tillamook.

Friday night visitors at the Joe Howard home were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Howard and sons, Bob and Don, Sterling Green and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard and son, Jimmy, all of St. Helens. Sterling, Bob and Barbara Howard attended the Loggers-Lions football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDonald have moved from their home on the Keasey route to 101 B st. The ranch, which they sold recently, was occupied by the McDonalds for 27 years.

DANCE at Natal, Saturday, October 5. Rhythm Vendors All-Girl orchestra.

J. T. Scott, owner of the Scott photograph studio, was taken to the Union depot in Portland last Friday in the Bush ambulance where he entrained for San Francisco to make his home with relatives. Mr. Scott had been bedridden for over a week before his departure.

Mrs. C. U. Enstrom recently spent a week in the new home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Steiner, at Longview. They celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary with a dinner party and received a lovely set of dishes.

DANCE at Natal, Saturday, October 5. Rhythm Vendors All-Girl orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Shipman and son, Bill, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poetter returned Tuesday night after a vacation trip. The Shipmans visited in Spokane and the Poetters in Montana. The party left two weeks ago Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Davis, left Wednesday on a car trip that will take them to Columbia, South Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis plan to spend about a month on the trip, returning by way of California. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Davis plan to remain in South Carolina where their parents reside.

Walter Kent and A. D. Lolley are two hunters reporting early season luck. They bagged a deer shortly after the season opening Saturday on Green mountains. The animal dressed 208 pounds.

The Bud Borton family were campers from Friday to Monday evening at the East Side camp with the Oglesby family of Forest Grove, during which time they hunted. No luck was the report.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Hawken, Jr., are the parents of a son, Richard Lyman, born at the Portland Sanitarium September 27. He weighed eight pounds, two and one-half ounces.

Eye Lost Due Recent Injury

RIVERVIEW—A call at the Carl Ernest home Monday brought the information that their son, James who got a piece of steel in his eye August 30th had had his eye removed Tuesday, September 24th. The irony of his condition is that he had passed through World War II, coming home physically fit. James is but 21 and it is regrettable that he should be handicapped in this way.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Worley and Miss Claribel Lindsley spent Monday in Portland and Mrs. Herman Wood and Mrs. J. M. Peachey spent the day in Hillsboro and Forest Grove.

While on a business trip to Vernonia Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lonkey and Don Gift all of Scappoose spent some time at the Carl Ernest and Glen Hawkins homes in Riverview.

R. W. Graham of Portland was a visitor at the Reuben Pederson home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank White of Portland were week end guests at the Merle Cline home.

George Sanders suffered a severe heart attack Saturday afternoon and was just able to get to his neighbors, the Rands, to ask for a doctor. His condition was very grave for several hours.

M. A. Oakes is improving and is able to be up part of each day.

Sunday visitors at the Otto Carlson home were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown and two friends of St. Helens.

Family Arrives From Tennessee

RIVERVIEW — New neighbors to welcome this week are Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Leath who left Galatin, Tennessee, Sept. 1 and arrived here on the 5th. The Leaths spent last winter here and after spending the summer in the southland decided to return, and moved last week into the home vacated recently by the Wilkins family at the entrance of Sixth street. Mr. Leath is employed at the O-A mill.

Week end visitors at the Lloyd Callister home were Mr. and Mrs. Art Burt and daughter, Betty Lou, of Woodburn.

Laurel Wittwer came Tuesday evening from California for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Olof Jacobson, and Mr. Jacobson.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Pederson, son, Kenneth, and Carl Fraggell were in Portland Sunday to meet Reuben's wartime buddy, R. W. Lafman, SC2/c who was there on a 30-day leave from his station at San Diego.

Mrs. J. L. Farley of Kelso, Washington, left Tuesday for her home after a four-day visit with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Olof Jacobson.

Mrs. J. A. Wirtz returned Thursday from the Greenville neighborhood where on Monday she attended the opening mass at the St. Francis Sisters school at Roy where her grandson, Davey

Joe Kemper, enrolled for his first year of school work.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schroeder drove to Woodland, Washington, Sunday for a visit with Louis' father but hurried home to entertain Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ross and son, Sammy, of Everett, Washington, who drove over Sunday afternoon for a two-day visit with them.

A SANDWICH

OR A FULL MEAL

GET A TASTE OF Home Cooking

Either will please the most particular palate when you order at the friendly cafe.

PALACE CAFE

E. V. Robertson
Cleve Robertson

New Shipment of Lady Alice Dressees Just Arrived

The Apparel Shop
Phone 396

ROSE AVENUE GARAGE

Get the maximum "GO" from every mile you drive with regular Standard lube jobs. Thorough chassis lubrication assures you of years of satisfactory car performance.

Oregon-American LUMBER CORPORATION
Vernonia, Oregon

PHONE 91

Give Harry King your order for groceries and have them delivered to your kitchen that is the way to ease the work of grocery shopping.

And from King's you get the best in meats and groceries when you order.

KING'S Grocery - Market
"Where Your Money Buys More"
At the Mile Bridge

Phone 91 Riverview

AT WESTERN'S

Varcon Deluxe Brake Shoes and Lining Complete ready to install
$1.73 and up

Baby's Car Seat
Heavy web constructed, 2 patterns. Comfortable traveling for you
$195

SILEX COFFEE MAKERS
$375

Sealed Beam Replacement Lenses98c

CLEAR GLASS TUMBLERS
Limit 6
Super Special
3c each

BABY BUGGY
Sturdily constructed for long service$16.90

Varcon Hydraulic Master Cylinder and wheel cyl. replacement kits
69c and up

SEAT COVERS
for coupes, coaches, sedans.
Prices range from $675 to $1670

SOILAX
For cleaning walls and woodwork
25c

Varcon Rings for that needed overhaul
Ford$3.79
Chev$2.98

SLEEPING BAG 36-in.x80-in. Virgin Wool Full panel end, drop side, filling. 100-in. zipper. Lined with balloon silk. $2195
BABY CRIB Natural finish $995 and $1495
Mattress, wet proof $9.95 Kerosene

Fuel Pump Replacements and Repair Kits. Average replacement costs $2.98 Exchange. For Ford and Chev.

TIRE PUMP
Heavy Duty
$2.29

Western Stores
WESTERN AUTO SUPPLY CO.

4-burner console type range $72.95

Round Mirrors $139

AUTHORIZED DEALER