LOGGERS GO TO SEASIDE FRIDAY

The Lion-taming Loggers will try their "gentle" tactics on the Seaside Seagulls this Friday evening at 8 o'clock in another night game, the first evening feature for the locals at that place.

The Gulls turned in a 45-25 win for themselves last week against Rainier, with a good offensive showing, but with an apparent weakness against pass defense. However, the weakness against an aerial attack may be overcome before Friday, a Tuesday report from Seaside indicated.

The game will be another for the new field lights at Seaside.

VISIT IN RIVERVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bell of Cutler City drove up Thursday to bring their children here to spend a week or two with relatives while they hunt deer in the John Day country. Kenna Lou and Baby George are with Mr. and Mrs. George Bell while Zoe Ann is at the Whitsell home in Vernonia.

BABY LOGGERS TO MEET BANKS

The Logger B team will pit its strength against the Banks union high school eleven here Monday afternoon Coach J. Hergert said this week and fans are promised a lot of football activity.

The coach has been putting the baby Loggers through a more strict practice schedule this week to prepare them for Monday's game.

The grid event is set for 2 p.m. at the city park field.

Fire and water is a good combination if its plenty of water on a campfire. Stop forest fires.

COUNTY NEWS

WATKINS TO QUIT AS ASSESSOR

ST. HELENS—Columbia county is going to have to find a new assessor after 1948.

Fred Watkins, who has been in the assessor's office for 25 years and has served as assessor since 1932, said last week that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself when his current four-year term expires at the end of 1948. Watkins will be 71 when his term ends and plans to retire, taking advantage of the retirement act recently enacted by the state legislature and accepted by Columbia county.

GEORGE A. NELSON TO RESIGN IN SPRING

ST. HELENS—Some time next spring, George A. Nelson, dean of county agents in the northwest, is going to turn over to some younger man the job of helping Columbia's farmers with their problems and become a farmer himself. He isn't sure just exactly when he'll retire, but Nelson said last week that this winter will be his final one as county agent. Then he'll be just plain Rancher Nelson with 2450 acres of land out around Camp 8 in the Coast range hills to worry about.

If he chooses to retire on May 2, 1947, Nelson will have completed 24 years as county agent here, for he came to Columbia county May 2, 1923.
