

Three Taken To Hospitals

RIVERVIEW—We regret to report that during the five days following Sunday, October 5, three of our middle-aged men were taken to Portland hospitals, two of them by ambulance. J. M. Peachey was taken to Providence hospital on Monday suffering with an enlarged heart and pulmonary embolus; George Sanders was taken to the Veterans hospital Wednesday, also with heart trouble and Louis Huntley went to the Emmanuel on Friday to be prepared for a major kidney operation. Their friends and neighbors hope to have them all home again soon. How about a hospital in this neighborhood?

Patty Carl was on the sick list Monday suffering with a bad cold.
After a trip across the U.S., Atlantic ocean, and much of Sweden, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Carlsson decided Friday to see more of Oregon so visited for the first time our state capital, going on to Sweet Home and home via Portland. They report much activity in the Willamette valley, also plenty of heat.
After spending a week of the deer hunting season at the Louis Huntley home here, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Raymer and Cass Heagel returned to their home in Seattle Saturday, minus a deer.

Robert Connelly and Laura Rouse of Portland spent the week end at the C. N. Van De Bogart home here.
Mr. and Mrs. George Carl and children, Bobby, Mary, Laura and Mikie attended the International Live Stock show in Portland Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. T. E. White were Sunday dinner guests at the Claud Gibson home. Mr. White is a cousin of Mrs. Gibson and owner of the Arrow Ambulance Co. in Portland.
Mrs. C. I. Anderson accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roediger and son, Dave, to the coast Sunday where they visited her daughters at Ocean Lake and Tillamook.
Guy Hurd and George Armstrong attended the football games in Portland Saturday.
Alfred Sanders, U.S.N., was in Portland Monday to see his father and learn what he could about the maritime strike.
Sunday visitors at the Morris Falconbury home were Mathew Thewen with his family and sister of Portland.
Mrs. Nichols was a portland visitor Wednesday.
Week end visitors at the Lloyd Callister home were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Howe of Newport and their son, daughter-in-law and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Howe and little Mike Howe of Forest Grove.

More Changes Of Homes Made

RIVERVIEW — More home changes. This week its good bye and good luck to the Lowell Thornbrughs who moved on Saturday of last week to a farm on the Timber Rt. two miles beyond Treharne and a welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and children who came up from Arizona and moved Saturday into the property owned by Mrs. Allen Rice on the Mist Route.
Max Millis went to Corvallis Oct. 4th and on the following Monday enrolled as a student at O.S.C.
When a fine new Nash stopped at her gate Saturday, Mrs. Anna Parker went out to investigate. At the wheel she found her nephew, Clifton Solomon, of Drain. He was accompanied by his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Solomon of Bay City. The foursome remained for the week end and treated Anna to a joy ride Sunday.
Sunday night and Monday visitors at the T. F. Hillyer home were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Combs and children of Portland.
Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobs and daughters and Ronnie Nuson of Clatskanie were Sunday dinner guests at the Riley Hall home.
Mrs. George Williamson and sons of Hillsboro were at the Louis Huntley home Friday and the boys stayed until Sunday when Mr. Williamson came over for them.

George Peachey left Sunday for his home in Malaga, Washington, after spending several days here during his father's critical illness. Mr. Peachey is improving slowly.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsay were busy entertainers Sunday. Their dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lucas and sons, Bobby and Jonathan, of North Plains and Ken Arney and Bill Meares of Portland. Afternoon callers were Mrs. Lindsay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lindberg and her brother Maurice of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Heffman of Seattle who were on their way to Corvallis where Maurice is a student at the O.S.C.

NO MATTER HOW BIG A BUSINESS IS— IT STILL NEEDS ADVERTISING.

Now I have an "ad" in this paper once in awhile. But last week I forgot it on account of I had too much business to tend. Then I wondered why the "ad" man from the Eagle forgot to call. Bet it was because my bill is paid.
"Suppose if he saw my name on his ledger he might have been over to see me? NO, guess not, we don't do business that way in Vernonia.
But I still think it is more his business to get after advertisers than it is mine to force an "ad" on him.
Anyhow, if you want results in advertising, don't use Portland or New York papers. Don't try for bargains in other towns. Patronize local people. If you want a good meal or the best of drinks don't go to Portland or New York. Go to—

"Where the Crowd Goes"

Another good place to trade is Western Stores. The owner, Walt Ready, is known to me, NOT as two-gun Ready, but two-watch Walt.
P.S. Any rates on this "ad" Marvin?

A Lesson in FOOD SAVINGS

The lesson we want to point out is this: When only the choice food items are purchased, those foods provide complete satisfaction and a consequent saving in expenditure as compared with foods that are not as satisfactory. Lower quality results in greater waste. The moral: SHOP AT GIROD'S.
